POURS WRATH ON JACK ROSE

Attorney McIntyre in Dramatic Plea to Save Lieut. Becker.

PAINTS GUNMAN AS FIEND INCARNATE

Day in Case Given Over to Summing Up by State and Defense.

New York, Oct. 23.—"Not a single person save the self-confessed murderer, Jack Rose, has ever connected Becker with these gun men—Jack Rose the hell of the assassins, the hell of robbers who boil and kill men!"

In these words John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, on trial for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, today sounded the keynote of an appeal to the jurors to acquit his client of the murder.

He told the jury that in the first place they must find before convicting Becker, that the four gun men were guilty of the killing "otherwise the case will fall."

Rose could not be believed, he charged because he was testifying to save his own life. Sam Schepps, "Bridge" Webber and Harry Vallon, he denounced as "murderers," with the same object in view. He attacked the credibility of the state's corroborating witnesses—Luban and Hallen—and charged that the district attorney "actuated by ambition," had "fathered a prosecution framed up by crooks."

Becker sat with closed eyes during the

RESULT OF VICE WAR IN CHICAGO

Was Murder of Young Italian Woman at Stratford, Conn.

THREE MEN ARE HELD

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 23.—That the young Italian woman, known here as Rose Bunnis, who was shot to death last night near Peck's mills, in Stratford, to which place she had been taken by five men in an automobile, was killed because of activity in the crusade in Chicago, is the theory on which the police are now working, as a result of their investigations into the affair.

A statement to this effect was made by Detective Captain George Arnold this noon, after several hours of questioning the three men captured after the shooting last night. The prisoners are Joe Bunano, known as Chicago Joe; Joseph Mottio and Frank Pizzichenni.

Under a rigid examination Bunano, according to Captain Arnold, has confessed to having shot the woman, who he claimed for the past four months had been his common law wife. In extenuation Bunano says he was under the influence of liquor and did not know what he was doing. Bunand said that the woman's husband, John Achillo, of New York, died about six months ago and that two months later he took the young woman as his common law wife. His story leading up to the shooting was conflicting. The police have learned that Bunano and the woman arrived in Bridgeport yesterday from Chicago, having left that city last Saturday.

$57,500 SENT TO BEVERIDGE

OTHERS BESIDES PERKINS HELPED

Beveridge Says He Will Appear Before Committee on Saturday.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Larz A. Whitcomb, a law partner of former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, testified to the Clapp committee late today that George W. Perkins, Edward McLean and Gifford Pinchot sent drafts amounting to $57,000 to Beveridge for his 1904 campaign.

Mr. Perkins has testified he sent only $10,000 and that Beveridge returned it.

The financial features of the campaign of former Senator Albert J. Beveridge for re-election in Indiana in 1904 were scheduled for investigation late today before the Clapp committee. Senator Beveridge has been asked to appear for examination, but the committee was unable to secure an answer from him. He is occupied with the progressive campaign in Indiana and may be unable to appear before the committee before election.

Witnesses Scheduled.

Several witnesses, including Larz Whitcomb, a former law partner of Senator Beveridge; Leopold G. Rothschild, John F. Hayes, H. C. Starr and H. C. Petit, who were associated with Senator Beveridge in the 1904 campaign, were scheduled to be examined as to an alleged fund of $50,000 or $60,000, which it has been charged was sent to Indiana to insure the election of a republican legislature.

Senator Beveridge later telegraphed the committee he would be unable to get to Washington today, but would come Saturday morning if the committee desired.

How It Was Divided.

Whitcomb, Beveridge's former law partner, testified that $30,000 came from Mr. Perkins; $25,000 from Edward McLean, a cousin to Beveridge, and $2,500 from Gifford Pinchot. He then went on to explain that Beveridge returned the drafts the day after election.

"Mr. Beveridge asked me to look at some letters on his desk. I saw one addressed to George W. Perkins and to it were attached three checks or drafts, each for $10,000. Another letter was addressed to Edward McLean and attached was a check for $25,000. The third letter to Gifford Pinchot was accompanied by a $2,500 check."

Mr. Whitcomb said Mr. Beveridge held the money until after election before returning it in order to prevent its use in the campaign. He thought the money was sent to Indiana for campaign purposes.

"My information is," said Senator Pomerene, "that this money was to be used in the event that the fund to be sent to Indiana by the national committee did not reach $100,000. If the fund fell short of that sum I understood these drafts were to be used in making up that amount. Do you know that is so?"

They Were Old Friends.

"No, I don't believe that is so," replied Mr. Whitcomb. Mr. Whitcomb explained that Perkins and Beveridge had worked together when Beveridge was a book agent and Perkins an insurance agent in Indiana. This friendship, he said, was the cause of the Perkins contribution.

John F. Hayes, Senator Beveridge's private secretary in 1904, testified that in the fall of 1904 Senator Beveridge asked him to read and witness certain letters.

"One of these was sent to Edward L. McLean, of Greenfield, Ohio, Senator Beveridge's cousin. It stated that Senator Beveridge returned untouched a

REBEL GENERAL DIAZ IS TAKEN

Leader and His Staff Captured; Followers Are Disarmed.

FEDERALS HOLD CITY

Vera Cruz, Mex., Oct. 23.—Felix Diaz with the whole of his staff was captured today and all the rebels disarmed. The casualties were insignificant.

The government forces occupied the city with very little opposition. Gen. Louis Valdez and Col. Jiminez Castro, with their respective columns of federal troops, were the first to enter the place. They met with only slight resistance.

Col. Jose Diaz Ordaz, of the Twenty-first infantry, who joined Felix Diaz with his troops when he first proclaimed the revolution, has not yet been captured. He is a cousin of Felix Diaz.

A number of Fort Wayne people attended the funeral of the late Austin H. Richardson, at Arcola. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning and were largely attended.

COLONEL WAS HUNGRY AGAIN

Mr. Roosevelt Gets Breakfast an Hour Ahead of Schedule.

HE GAINS RAPIDLY

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 23.—A long night's sleep largely offset the wearisome effects of Col. Roosevelt's trip from Chicago to Oyster Bay and he was greatly refreshed when he awoke this morning. The colonel at once declared that he was hungry, and his breakfast was prepared an hour before the usual time.

It was a hearty meal which was set before the colonel in his room, but the dishes were empty when they were carried away. With the restrictions of the physicians as to his diet largely removed with the appetite of a convalescent he ate in a way which gave the promise of returning strength. He expected to sit up for several hours today.

Word was given out that no visitors would be permitted to see Col. Roosevelt today. His physicians told him yesterday that he must see no one until Thursday, and that upon his obedience to their order for absolute rest might depend his chances of resuming the work of campaign later.

Tomorrow, if the patient continues to improve, he probably will be permitted to see George W. Perkins, Senator Dixon, William H. Hotchkiss, New York state progressive chairman, and a few other progressive leaders for a short conference, at which he will once more take charge of the affairs of the party.

Col. Roosevelt's physicians were expected at Sagamore Hill this morning to dress his wound.

GIRL IS AGAIN WITNESS.

Federal Grand Jury Resumes Probe of Jack Johnson Case.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—The federal grand jury inquiry into the "Jack" Johnson-Lucile Cameron case was resumed today after some delay occasioned by the death of the mother of Harvey A. Parkin, assistant United States district attorney. The first witness was Jos. Levy, Johnson's white secretary, who is believed to have information of importance to the investigation.

Lucile Cameron again was a witness for the purpose of completing her story which was interrupted yesterday when she collapsed in the jury room. The girl is reported reconciled with her mother and to be willing to aid the investigation in every way.

NEGRO ADMITS DOUBLE MURDER

WHITE MEN VICTIMS

Indianapolis, Oct. 23.—Frank Willie Smith, a negro, early today confessed to the police that he killed Frank Foxall and Philip Lepper, whites, near the state fair grounds the evening of Oct. 2 last. The negro was arrested in Louisville, Ky., and returned to this city this morning. Smith in his confession said the white men first called him names and then hit him with a stone before he began shooting at them.

Foxall and Lepper, bartenders, were killed after a day of drinking in a grove with two women. One of the women left the scene before the murders and the other's story of the negro was discredited by the police at first and much mystery surrounded the affray. The girl said the negro, after killing the two men, assaulted her. This the negro denied in his confession. The negro's confession follows:

"On the night of Oct. 2 I was coming from the home of a relative to catch a car near Scanlan's road house. As I crossed the Keystone avenue bridge over Fall creek I met two men and a woman. One was a big man, Lepper, I think. They had been drinking and they said: 'Look at the nigger' when I passed.

"I did not reply, but they followed me near the road house. They made other remarks to me and then one of them threw a stone at me. It hit me on the head. It knocked me down.

"I got up and went on; they followed; then the girl ran up and struck me; another rock was thrown and hit me on the side.

"I drew my revolver and fired five shots into the air. They did not run, but kept after me.

"I reloaded the gun and I shot again and again. The little fellow and the big one ran away from me. Then I ran.

"I did not try to assault the girl."

STEAMER COMAL FLOATED.

Big Vessel, Aground Near Mobile Bay, Is Released.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 23.—The Mallory line steamer Comal, which left Mobile yesterday afternoon with a cargo and passengers for New York, is reported hard aground on Sand Island, near the entrance to Mobile bay.

The Comal was floated and resumed her voyage to Tampa and New York. The vessel was not damaged.

TO SUE STATE FOR $100,000

Porter Race Promoters to Demand Damages for Troops' Action.

WILL ALSO SEEK AN INJUNCTION

With Soldiers in Control Day's Racing Card is Called Off.

Porter, Ind., Oct. 23.—Both sides in the fight being waged by the state of Indiana to close the Mineral Springs race track, near here, rested today, but the race track men were making preparations to reopen the fight. The state troops retained possession of the property under orders to prevent racing by force, if necessary, and today's schedule of races was called off.

After a long conference between owners and promoters they decided to bring suit against the state for $100,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained when the races were stopped by the troops yesterday.

Plans also were made for filing an application for an injunction to prevent the state from interfering further with the track. Both suits are to be filed immediately, it was announced.

Jockeys this morning exercised horses over the course with the permission of the militia officers, who were interested spectators. Several stable owners prepared to ship their strings to other tracks.

Spend Cheerless Night.

The two companies of state militia sent to Porter to stop racing spent a cheerless night with the rain and succeeding cool weather interfering with their comfort, but the men were astir early today prepared to interfere again if there is another attempt at racing this afternoon.

Just what action will be taken by the track officials was not known this morning. A. F. Knotts, president of the Mineral Springs club, made the statement he would resort to the courts in an effort to obtain an injunction preventing the troops from interfering with the racing, but nothing has been done so far.

Knotts is angry at the state officials for sending the troops to Porter. He still denies there is gambling, that is, gambling by bookmakers, but asserts there may have been betting between individuals, which the club is powerless to prevent. He said the sending of troops was a grand stand play on the part of the governor.

John Gavit, of Gary, one of the officers of the Mineral Springs Racing association, said today, "We will finish our fifteen days racing if it takes all winter to do it."

GREEKS LEAVE IOWA TO FIGHT.

Kneel in Street at Davenport and Receive Blessing.

Davenport, Iowa, Oct. 23.—Following a parade today, 300 Greeks knelt in the street to pray before leaving for home to fight the Turks. Their priest gave them the blessing. As the train left the station the recruits gave a cheer for the American flag. Five hundred Greeks and 140 Bulgarians have now left Davenport to fight, taking with them about $30,000 in savings and leaving many manufacturers and contractors shorthanded.

NEW ISSUES FACE WOMEN

Suffrage Question Likely to Figure in Federation Convention.

BOARD DEBATES THE QUESTION

Early Session Given Over to Registration and Routine.

There will be several new matters for urgent consideration by the members of the Indiana Federation of Clubs now in progress in its sixth annual conference at the Anthony hotel.

The executive board in session this afternoon has to consider among other things whether or no the suffrage question for women shall be among the things taken up in convention work or not. The Woman's Franchise League of Indiana has sent in a resolution to that effect and the executive board is asked to either adopt the resolution or express its sentiment regarding the subject.

Another important matter that will concern the federation was a plea made by Miss Hunter, a newspaper woman of Peru, for the organization of a newspaper woman's federation to become a branch of the Indiana federation.

Mrs. Leon Stern, of Terre Haute proposes that a private secretary to the president be made a permanent office of the federation and that her salary be paid from the treasury of the state organization.

Three newspaper women got that much of a hearing before the executive board and they believe their wishes will be carried out before the sixth convention of the federated clubs adjourns. Miss Blanche Constance Foster, representing the Indianapolis [illegible] of the espousers of the newspaper federation of newspaper women.

Convention Begins Work.

The opening session of the sixth annual convention of the Indiana Federation of Clubs was held this morning in the Anthony hotel. Not many delegates were present at the opening hour, when the credentials committee met but arrivals have been continuous all day.

Of the general officers Mrs. Felix McWhirter, Indianapolis, president; Mrs. Lewis J. Cox, Terre Haute, first vice president; Mrs. G. C. Markle, Winchester, treasurer, came yesterday and were in consultation with local committee chairmen early. Mrs. Eva M. Perry, of Westfield, was also on the ground yesterday for her work as chairman of the credentials committee. Mrs. Harriet C. Maloney, of Albion, chairman of the election board, was busy at her places of duty. Mrs. Elizabeth Claypool Earl, of Connersville, who is chairman for Indiana for the general endowment fund, was one of the early arrivals and was in consultation with the official board members.

The Morning Session.

But little business, other than the registering of delegates, the presenting of credentials and a discussion in general of the coming program was transacted this morning.

The chairmen of the various departments have not yet all arrived and of the official board, Miss Vida Newsom, of Columbus; Mrs. Howell V. Perry, of Crown Point, and Mrs. S. E. Perkins, of Indianapolis, were expected before the

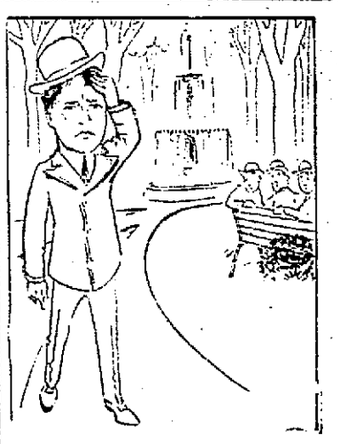
George Dierstein's Headache

GEORGE DIERSTEIN is of a naturally peaceful disposition. But he surely did stir things up last Sunday morning. Mr. Dierstein is the organist of the Fort Wayne Lodge of Elks, and was formerly connected with the Foster store as an expert draper. The tapestries and draperies of many a fine Fort Wayne home testify to his artistic talent. Some time ago, the Pennsylvania company engaged his services as an experienced man needed in their Pullman car work. He lives at 1314 Fairfield avenue.

Last Sunday morning Mr. Dierstein awoke with a headache. This sometimes happens after he has had a day of severe eye-strain, and as soon as it was convenient, he went over to McCulloch park to see if an hour or so of walking in the pure air would relieve his aching head. For quite a long time he strolled back and forth from one end to the other of the little park, but seemed to notice no relief, when, finally, on approaching the fountain, he decided to take a headache powder which he carried with him to relieve his headache when other methods fail. He tipped the powder to his lips and was about to wash it down with a cup of water when he was startled out of his wits by an unearthly yell, while somebody, evidently footpads, grabbed him and held him tight. His first impulse was to try to break away from those who held him, but as there were three of his assailants he decided not to try self-defense but to let them take his valuables and get away, if by so doing he could save his life. But, to his astonishment, they didn't do anything but hold him fast.



They Speculated.

"What's this all about?" he demanded.

"Well, you're not going to commit suicide and we sit here and watch you do it. Not on your life!" said one.

And then the situation cleared itself. It seems that three young men, sitting on a park bench, noticed Mr. Dierstein walking to and fro, with a clouded look on his face, and they speculated as to the probable cause. While still in doubt—and thinking nothing about possible headaches—they saw him approach the fountain, lift the powder to his lips and then fill the cup. They were upon him in a second.

"And the funny part of it was," says Mr. Dierstein, "that they scared the headache right out of me."

PIONEER FARMER IS FOUND DEAD

FROM HEART ATTACK

George E. Opliger, aged seventy-one years, a pioneer farmer of Allen county, was found dead on the floor of his barn, one mile north of Wallen at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, by his wife, who became alarmed at his long absence from the house.

Mr. Opliger left the house about 6:30 o'clock and went to the barn to look after his stock and also to attend to other work. Coroner Edward H. Kruse pronounced death due to heart disease. The aged man had suffered severe attacks of heart trouble on previous occasions.

HARRIS.

Mrs. Jennie Harris, of Brushy Prairie, a well known resident of this county, died Tuesday at the age of sixty-three years. She became ill three weeks ago, shortly after returning home from a visit with relatives. Surviving she leaves two sons, two daughters and a sister.

Funeral services were held today at the home in Brushy Prairie and the remains were shipped to Hicksville for interment.

HEHEMANN.

Mrs. Rose Theresa Hehemann, wife of William J. Hehemann, died Tuesday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital at the age of twenty-eight years, eleven months and twenty-five days. Death was due to complications and followed an illness of one year. She was removed to the hospital last Wednesday.

Mrs. Hehemann was born in Danville, Ill., October 27, 1883. She was married to Mr. Hehemann in June, 1911, and moved to Fort Wayne. They resided at 1024 Hanna street. The husband is a salesman at the Wolf & Dessauer store.

The remains will be shipped to Danville Thursday morning at 5 o'clock over the Wabash railroad.

GLORY FADES FOR BEVERLY

President Taft Packs Golf Sticks and Quits Summer Capital.

MAY NEVER RETURN

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 23.—Beverly's glory as the summer capital grew dim today when President Taft packed away his golf sticks and climbed aboard a white house automobile with Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen and Secretary of state Knox to end his vacation in the north with a three day motor trip into the heart of Maine.

The president's lease on Parramatta expires this year and the Beverlyites do not look for his return, no matter how the November election goes.

Mr. Taft had spent four summers near Beverly and he and his family have been familiar figures on the roads about the summer capital, known to most of the inhabitants of this little eastern Massachusetts city.

The president's vacation here this year was long. He arrived August 27 and began the task of keeping out of a hot campaign, keeping up with a lively correspondence and getting ready for the session of congress. In the two months he has been here he has done scores of things besides playing golf and motor. He has received on an average a half dozen callers a day, has dictated thousands of letters, prepared probably a dozen statements and given many political interviews; he has been in constant touch with the Washington departments and he has acquired a ruddy, healthy tan, a bright eye and a springly step.

BERLIN WOMEN IN MEAT RIOT

Wreck Stalls as Butchers Refuse to Handle Imported Meats.

WANT LOWER PRICES

Berlin, Oct. 23.—Hundreds of Berlin housewives joined in a wild riot today because the butchers in the municipal markets refused to handle meat imported so as to reduce the cost of living.

The principal trouble occurred in the Wedding district, which is entirely inhabited by working people. Hundreds of women who went to the municipal market hoping to profit by reduced prices, found that the butchers had agreed not to deal in meats imported by the municipality. They then stormed the butchers' stalls, seized all the native-raised meat, trampled it on the ground and fought with the butchers. The police were forced to close the market to stop the riot.

The prices of combustibles are so high in Berlin that the government recently gave permission to the city authorities to bring in and sell meats from abroad at the city markets and to control the prices. The butchers at first agreed to handle these meats, but late last evening announced that they had decided on a general boycott of them in the twelve municipal markets of Berlin. The municipality declares its intention of punishing the butchers by cancelling their licenses.

evening meeting tonight. Mrs. Rose M. Carter, of Seymour, who is auditor of the state federation, is ill and will not be here.

Mrs. C. M. Dawson, general chairman, Mrs. E. M. Wilson, chairman of the Twelfth district, and the various chairmen of assisting committees were well in evidence even at an early hour. The ballroom of the hotel has been tastefully decorated with flags and autumn foliage and a banner across one end bears the keynote of the federation, "The union of all for the good of all." The work of decorating was done by Miss Lavon Sperry, assisted by Mrs. E. T. Williams, Mrs. H. B. Sale, Mrs. F. H. McCulloch, Mrs. A. W. Pickard, Mrs. C. A. Dunkelberg, Mrs. A. E. Fauve, Mrs. Frank Rahe and Miss Kay Spencer.

Served Tea to Visitors.

In order to permit a time for visitors and club women to meet it was arranged to serve a cup of tea this afternoon in the hotel. Mrs. S. C. Lumbard and Mrs. Clark Fairbank had charge of the affair and presided with Mrs. McIntyre, of Auburn; Mrs. Maloney, of Albion, and Mrs. Harry Parks, of Kendallville, assisting.

An Important Feature.

The department of literature of the federation is taking an important part in the work of the convention. The committee has a long table spread with books and pamphlets concerning social hygiene, contagious diseases, fundamental reforms, and problems of the bringing up of children. The committee is emphasizing the subject of social purity. Mrs. John R. Miller, of Greencastle, is general chairman of the committee and Mrs. C. S. Ridenour of the local committee. Mrs. Chester T. Lane and Mrs. Isaac d'Isay were local women on hand early to push the work forward.

Evening Session.

The session tonight will be held in the First Presbyterian church, corner of Washington and Clinton streets. The program will include the invocation by Rev. E. W. Averill, music by J. B. Archer, organist, and the Apollo club; addresses of welcome by Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Wilson and T. F. Thieme with response by Mrs. Lewis J. Cox and an address by Mrs. McWhirter. The convention visitors will then be taken to an inspection of the Scottish Rite cathedral and a large reception will be held afterwards at Minuet hall. The public is invited both to the church and to the reception. The reception will be under the auspices of the Woman's League.

Club Women Interested.

Fort Wayne club women are showing great interest in the convention, whether members of special committees or not, and there were many who found time during the day to attend at least a part of a session. Mrs. A. H. Perfect, who is chairman of the courtesy committee; Mrs. Aaron Rothschild, Mrs. R. S. Taylor, Mrs. S. E. Hamlett, Mrs. John P. Evans, Miss Hadji Dawson and Mrs. W. A. Diffenderfer were among the chairmen of committees, in addition to others named, who were early on the scene of action.

The Visiting Delegates.

Among the visitors registered at the opening session of the convention were Mrs. G. W. Kenney, Peru; Mrs. J. L. Saylor, Winchester; Mrs. D. A. Purviance, Huntington; Mrs. Jacob Dick, Huntington; Miss Flora Purviance, Huntington; Mrs. William Charters, Peru; Mrs. Martha H. Griffiths, Evansville; Mrs. Susan Crane Hoagland, Butler; Mrs. M. Branstetter, Butler; Mrs. John F. Shinneman, Columbia City; Mrs. Herman E. Barth, North Vernon; Mrs. Joseph D. Cone, North Vernon; Mrs. Fortune, of Franklin; Mrs. Lincoln, Dixon, North Vernon; Mrs. James McCormick, Winchester; Miss Alma Meier, Winchester; Miss Harriet Henton, Peru; Mrs. J. H. W. T. DURBIN SAYS THINGS ARE FINE

SEES G. O. P. VICTORY

Col. Winfield T. Durbin, republican candidate for governor of Indiana, reached Fort Wayne at noon today and brought with him news regarding the political situation in the Hoosier state which is received with unbounded joy in the local republican camp.

His face wreathed in smiles, Mr. Durbin stepped from the interurban car at the terminal station and lost no time in informing members of the reception committee that G. O. P. affairs in Indiana are looking up.

"Two weeks ago I said republican affairs looked better," said Mr. Durbin. "Today I say they look good, and next week I will say they look excellent."

Mr. Durbin was met at the station by a reception committee composed of William Geake, Postmaster R. B. Hanna, District Chairman Allen J. Vesey and County Chairman George H. Loesch. In an automobile he was taken to the Anthony hotel where he enjoyed dinner, and this afternoon he entertained numerous visitors.

It is declared by local republicans that Mr. Durbin's visit to Fort Wayne at this time means a great deal to the republican party in Allen county and the Twelfth district. He will deliver an address at a mass meeting to be held this evening at Princess rink. It is considered very likely that Mr. Durbin will attempt to lower the opinion of local voters for Albert J. Beveridge, candidate for governor on the progressive ticket. Mr. Beveridge, when speaking in Fort Wayne a few weeks ago, entertained no scruples in attacking Mr. Durbin from every possible political angle.

The meeting this evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock and Judge Walter Olds will preside as chairman. Mr. Durbin will be the only speaker.

Taft in the Lead.

Mr. Durbin states that in his opinion Taft will carry the fifteen electoral votes in Indiana. He declares that the bull moose movement is waning and that there is nothing in sight but another republican victory.

He also wishes democrats and working men to attend the meeting tonight. "I want everybody to hear some of the things I am going to say," said Mr. Durbin. "The bull moose movement is losing ground every day and the leaders know it. Thousands of democrats are going to vote for Mr. Taft and they will make up for the loss of regulars from the G. O. P. ranks. The democrats want to see good times continued.

"As for Mr. Beveridge for governor, he hasn't the least chance in the world. Instead of singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers," he will be shouting, "How Tedious and Tasteless the Hour When Victory is Not Mine."

LANGFORD SCORES BOSSES.

With C. R. Lane He Addresses Republicans at Ligonier.

R. H. Langford, of Omaha, Neb., with Charles R. Lane, of this city, republican candidate for congress, addressed a big meeting of republicans Tuesday night at Ligonier. Both Mr. Lane and Mr. Langford devoted considerable time in attempting to convince their auditors that Beveridge would be a miserable failure as governor, and that Roosevelt is the candidate of the bosses.

Mr. Lane will go to Kendallville this evening to address a mass meeting of republicans.

TOWNSHIP MEETINGS TONIGHT.

Democratic Speakers to Invade the County.

Democratic speakers will this evening go into three townships in Allen county where meetings are to be held. Hon. James M. Robinson and William Freuchtenicht will speak at Wallen, in Washington township. Attorney Charles M. Niezer and Deputy Prosecutor Stephen A. Callahan will speak at the Center school in Scipio township, and a meeting at Milan Center will be addressed by Judge John H. Aiken and Frank Emrick.

CLARK HERE TOMORROW.

Cleveland Attorney to Address Democratic Meeting.

John H. Clark, of Cleveland, O., attorney for the Nickel Plate railroad, will be in Fort Wayne tomorrow and will deliver an address in the evening at a mass meeting of democrats to be held at Odeon hall.

Mr. Clark is an orator of country-wide reputation and has long been a leader in democratic affairs in the Buckeye state.

PROGRESSIVE MEETINGS.

Wards to Carry On Further Organization Work.

The different wards of the city will hold meetings this week for the purpose of carrying on the work of progressive organization among the voters. The first meeting of this kind will be held tonight at the office of Lee J. Hartzell, and will be attended by voters of the Third ward. The Eighth ward voters will meet tomorrow night at the Olive club.

Homer C. Underwood, progressive candidate for circuit judge, addressed a meeting at noon today at the Pennsylvania shops.

At a meeting held last night in Eel River township the organization of a Roosevelt club was perfected with the following officers: President, Russell Haber; vice president, Merrill Robinson; secretary, Alfred Bair. The meeting was addressed by Lee J. Hartzell and O. P. Eversole.

BIG CROWDS ATTEND.

Speakers Pleased With the Noonday Meetings at Shops.

Democratic speakers who addressed the different noonday meetings at the shops today, declare that the attendance is steadily increasing, and that unlimited interest is being manifested by the shopmen in the political situation.

A responsive crowd of workingmen attended the meetings held at noon at Van Arnam's plant, the rolling mills, Hanna-Brackenridge company and the American Dredging company, where addresses were delivered by Charles M Niezer and H. Waveland Kerr.

Another big meeting was held at the Electric works. Addresses were delivered by Hon. James M. Robinson, Albert E. Thomas, William C. Schwier and A. C. Gladieux.

address. His wife wept. The state sums up this afternoon.

Trial Nears End.

A day of summing up, adjournment till tomorrow morning and then Justice Goff's charge to the jury. This was the program today for the close of the trial of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker; indicted for the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal. The trial opened on Monday, Oct. 7.

When court opened today John F. McIntyre, ready to sum up for the defense, announced that he would speak probably for four hours—the entire forenoon session. The afternoon session was alotted the prosecution with a probable four hour plea for conviction by Frank Moss, assistant district attorney. Justice Goff will charge the jury Thursday morning and Becker's fate should be known before night.

The defendant's wife was in court as usual today, ready to listen to McIntyre's arguments in her husband's behalf and to the denunciation of the prosecutor, who seeks to send him to the electric chair.

Easy to Explain, He Says.

"Around this man some circumstances have been woven, easy, however, of satisfactory explanation," said Mr. McIntyre. "They point toward innocence, although by the district attorney they may be tortured in the direction of guilt.

"I beseech you to approach the final moments of this case with care and scrutiny that no mistakes be made.

"We ask that the proofs be looked into with microscopic inspection in order to prevent error of judgment creeping in. The defendant has endured the pelting of a merciless storm from a conspiracy hatched in yonder prison. The prosecution has partaken too much of the nature of a private proceeding.

"I will call things and persons by their right names—I will deal harsh blows, and after a full and candid discussion of this case I will not then fear that I will bring down upon myself the censure of this jury.

"I am defending an American, not a murderer. His accusers are vile; a lawless and degenerate set, reeking in filth and infamy; they have tarnished the fair name of a great city— a city more philanthropic and generous than any in the world.

Framed Up by Crooks.

"The district attorney has been misled, perhaps deceived. He may be actuated by ambition, and ambition often beclouds good judgment; but in the end he has fathered a prosecution framed up by crooks.

"This trial had its birth in the hearts of four murderers—Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schepps—self-confessed assassins, all of whom when it is over, will be free men again in this city to murder again if they please.

"Rose, as the evidence shows, cherished animosity against Rosenthal as I will show. His feeling toward him was more bitter than gall; he despised the ground upon which he walked; he connived at his murder, and when detected a link had to be forged connecting someone higher up. The public mind had been inflamed; hysteria prevailed; public clamor was rampant; the evidence shows that the district attorney did not want small fry but the big fish. Rose saw his opportunity, and the framing up of Becker then started.

Denunciation Is Bitter.

"Rose," exclaimed Mr. McIntyre in dramatic tones; "he is the hell of the jugglers, the hell of the assassins, the hell of robbers who boil and kill men, the infernal tun of the deceitful, the excrementitious hell, the hell of the revengeful and every thought of that monster comes to his associates as a magnetizer and each thought of his has been imparted to his fellow murderers.

"Nothing was cooler than his head when the lightnings of his imagination were playing in the sky.

"There was no weapon in all the armory of fiction which he did not possess and use in his effort to incriminate the defendant.

"There needs but one wise man in the company of crooks and all become wise, so rapid is the contagion.

"We balance one man with his opposite—Becker of good character versus a self-confessed assassin."

Reviews the Evidence.

Mr. McIntyre then began to review the evidence, beginning with the testimony of state's eye-witnesses. He declared that before Becker could be found guilty, the jury must find that the four gunmen were the actual slayers of Rosenthal; otherwise, the proof of conspiracy was not valid.

"If others did it," he asserted, "Becker is not guilty and you must find beyond a reasonable doubt that the gunmen did it. If you have any doubt about it, the case fails."

Mr. McIntyre spoke slowly and evenly, hardly raising his voice above the ordinary conversational tone at first, but pitching it in a higher key as he proceeded. Justice Goff closed his eyes as he sat on the bench. From without the railing in a corner of the court room hidden by the jury box sat District Attorney Whitman, his chair tilted against the wall, his hand on his chin, his eyes on his opponent.

The jurors settled down comfortably in their chairs. Their eyes were fixed on the lawyer, intently at first, but later taking in other details of the court setting. Becker sat at the table about which were grouped his other counsel. If he felt emotion or anxiety for the outcome his face failed to mirror his thoughts.

A score or more women, scattered throughout the court room, gave close heed to Becker's lawyer and watched his every gesture. The wife of the prisoner was weeping before Mr. McIntyre was fairly launched on his address.

WATSON SUES TO RECOVER $5,000

Charges Son's Injury Was Not Properly Treated by His Physician.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

Charles J. Watson filed suit today in the superior court on behalf of his son, Leroy Watson, demanding $5,000 damages of Dr. Edmund D. Wells for alleged malpractice. The complaint is drawn by Thomas & Townsend and sets out that the son, who is six years old, dislocated his left elbow in a fall last April and that Dr. Wells undertook to reduce the swelling and remedy the dislocation. He says the lad was treated until June 13 and that he is permanently injured by the failure of the physician to do his work properly.

In Charge of Husband.

After a hearing in the circuit court today on habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Fred Marquardt, to prevent his wife, Florence, from being sent to a hospital for insane, Judge O'Rourke stated that he would not set aside the verdict of the physicians who had pronounced her of unsound mind, but would permit her to remain in charge of her husband.

Did Not Send Message.

Augusta Breaden has filed action against the Western Union Telegraph company demanding $100 statutory penalty for discriminating against a message sent by her husband to Ironton, O., to have the body of Julius Cerull shipped to Fort Wayne. She says it was delivered at 9 o'clock and held until 11 o'clock and that in the meantime later messages were given precedence. She also demands $3,000 damages. W. H. Reed filed the suit.

Congregation Files Papers.

Articles of association have been filed in the office of the county recorder by the Congregation B'Nai Jacob with the following incorporators: Aaron Heiligman, Benjamin Wartell, Harry Friedman, Louis Hess, Mendel Frank, Abraham Levy, Louis Schefman, Morris Tarlitz, Max Zelf, Louis J. QUEEN WILHELMINA ILL.

The Hague, Oct. 23.—The Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands has been suffering for several days from slight indisposition. This, according to an official bulletin signed by the court physicians, tends to dispel the hope which her majesty entertained of the birth of an heir to the throne. The bulletin adds that the condition of the queen is satisfactory.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

WINONA WILL BE CONFERENCE HOME

Methodist Episcopal Church of Northern Indiana is Considering the Proposition.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 23.—The establishment of a great ecclesiastical headquarters at Winona Lake, Ind., will be made possible if the Northern Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at its next meeting adopts a resolution favored by delegates to the Northwest Indiana conference, which has just closed its sessions in Indianapolis.

The ministers and laymen of the Northwest conference gave unanimous approval to the resolution, which was signed by the five district superintendents and forwarded to the Northern Indiana body. This conference will meet next spring when the proposition will be submitted.

Winona has been selected as headquarters because of its admirable facilities for handling large crowds. Between 450 and 500 ministers will be located in the enlarged conference. These, together with members of their families and lay delegates would raise the total number in attendance at the annual sessions to approximately 1,000. No city in the new conference, it is said, would have facilities for entertaining such an assemblage, while commodious hotels at Winona would provide adequate accommodations. One of the chief advantages which would result from the union, its supporters declare, would be the enlargement of the field in which pastors might circulate.

MORE POLICEMEN AT HUNTINGTON

Forty-Three Citizens Petition for Increase Because of the Epidemic of Drunks.

Huntington, Ind., Oct. 23.—Believing the peace and quietude of the eastern part of Huntington is daily in jeopardy on account of the numerous drunks and the attending crimes usual under such conditions, Albert J. Stevens and John Dumbauld, proprietors of a drug store in East Market street, and forty-one other business men and residents of that section of the city known as the "Bowery" and adjacent territory, have petitioned the city administration for additional police protection. The recent epidemic of public intoxication, with the eastern part of the city suffering much from this abuse, prompted this expression of the citizens in that portion of the city, who have come to believe their property and personal interests are menaced through lack of sufficient police protection.

Fort Wayne's Fair Guests.

Fort Wayne esteems it not only a very great pleasure, but an exceptional honor to welcome and to entertain the gifted women who come today to participate in the annual convention of Indiana's Federation of Clubs, and in behalf of the city The Sentinel desires to offer a most gracious welcome. The program mapped out for the gathering is one of wide scope and especial excellence, and we trust the Fort Wayne session may be in every way successful, enjoyable and profitable.

No thoughtful observer can question either the usefulness or the influence of the woman's club upon society, and it is a usefulness and an influence that is growing steadily as the movement widens and broadens. It is gratifying to reflect that Indiana ranks very high among her sister states in this phase of culture; that thousands of her gifted women are contributing each year by research and by forceful originality and intellectual leadership largely to the sum total of American culture and American development. Banded as they are in a common movement, the women's clubs of the state constitute a force that is of incalculable good not only to the club membership, but to the citizenship of the state at large. If there were ever a popular disposition to question the practicability of the women's club movement, it is most certainly disappearing before the actual definite results plainly visible in a larger sympathy, a clearer vision and a more comprehensive grasp of human problems demonstrated by women today. That much of this development is due to the club movement can scarcely be doubted. It is a vital, living, growing force, the further possibilities of which are as yet wholly unmeasured.

President Taft attended a moving picture show at Beverly and was regaled with views of himself in action about the summer capital, and while it is given out that the president found the entertainment enjoyable, he would probably be still more highly gratified at a motion picture of a substantial majority coming his way on November 5. But even the most skilled ingenuity of the moving picture craft will hardly be equal to the production of anything so improbable as that.

Senator Beveridge's return of the $10,000 campaign fund check to Mr. Perkins in 1904, because he didn't need the money appears to have been so completely at variance with accepted political ethics that it has caused something of a sensation. The situation is so strikingly unique that the Clapp senatorial committee of investigative research has summoned Mr. Beveridge before it, doubtless to see if such an apparent improbability ever really happened.

Former Vice President Fairbanks, who has always been regarded as an extremely soft-pedaled campaigner, appears to have kicked over the cherished traditions of a lifetime. He is now touring the state of Missouri for President Taft and carrying a brass band along with him. This is a striking instance of the extremity to which the G. O. P. leaders have been driven in these troublous days.

Forty indictments by the Vigo county grand jury would appear to be a very fair start toward the investigation into alleged fraudulent registrations at Terre Haute, but there is promise that the number will finally run to several hundred. The grand jury should get 'em all while it is at it.

THE PRESS DISCUSSES A WOULD-BE ASSASSIN.

"Murder in Their Hearts."

Philadelphia Inquirer: "The incident teaches that a stronger hand must be used in dealing with the doctrines of anarchy and the preaching of irresponsible agitators who carry murder in their hearts."

"Lowest Form of Humanity."

Washington Post: "When a man like Czolgosz, and this latest miscreant, refuse to be moved by the defenselessness and trust of their victims they write themselves into the lowest forms of humanity."

"Unbalanced Mind."

Boston Globe: "All these murderous attacks seemed to have been as unprovoked as a lightning stroke and as little related to our political differences. Behind each of them was a man with an unbalanced mind."

"Crackbrain's Target."

Hartford Courant: "The more conspicuously a man is before the public the greater his risk of becoming some crackbrain's target."

"Revulsion and Indignation."

Pittsburg Dispatch: "No American party will regard the killing or attempted killing of its opponents with any sentiment except that of revulsion and indignation."

"Large Questions."

Worcester Gazette: "When large questions are more or less passionately argued fanatics are always bread."

"Mad Venom."

Cleveland Leader: "Whatever the mad venom in the heart and brain of the would-be assassin, his crime struck at the republic."

"Only a Mental Pervert."

Boston Transcript: "Only a mental pervert could have entertained a purpose to assassinate Colonel Roosevelt."

"Mad Fanatics."

Baltimore Sun: "Of the three presidents assassinated not one was the victim of political conspiracy. All fell the victims of mad fanatics."

CARNEGIE AND KINGS.

(New York World.)

Usually the question that most distresses Americans who are to appear in the presence of royalty is what to wear. Mr. Carnegie, who has had exceptional opportunities for meeting kings, makes it a point of etiquette to laugh. "As a general rule," he says, "the monarch does not mind it, for he knows he is something of a faker and he laughs with me."

So if you are a plain, everyday republican, with half a billion or even less, the first time you meet a king in London, or Berlin, or Rome or anywhere else, make him feel at his ease by letting him understand that you know he is a good deal of a humbug and he'll enjoy it immensely. After that you can call any hour of the day and be sure of being admitted without ever sending up your card. Be sure to guy him about his court clothes and his crown and his small pay and the respect his subjects display for him. Do not be stiff or formal or stand on ceremony. Call him by his first name—Bill or George or whatever it may be—just as if he were running for president of the United States, and he'll like it.

The trouble with most people is that they do not know how kings feel. They want some one to warm up to them and talk to them about themselves without restraint. That was Bismarck's fault. He once said: "I have seen three emperors, and some of them were naked, and altogether they did not make a very impressive spectacle." But the reason he never got on was that he was not frank enough to tell the emperors of Germany, Russia and France what he thought of them in private.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Miss Edith Maier, of Duluth, is the guest of Mrs. C. M. Dawson.

Rev. S. A. Northrop returned from Kalamazoo last nigth.

Colonel Sam B. Sweet is at his home in this city.

R. T. McDonald left for Wichita, Kan., last night.

R. S. Robertson, Jr., and Arthur Pickard, went to Ligonier to spend the Sabbath.

James M. Robinson filed his bond in the sum of $5,000 as states' attorney this afternoon. He succeeds Mr. Dawson.

T. Z. Babcock, engineer at the Newspaper Union, had the index finger of his left hand crushed today. Dr. George Greenewalt dressed the injury.

The old pier which supported the old Nickel Plate bridge over the St. Mary's river was removed today by a force of workmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Rosenthal are today pleasantly observing the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. They will give a reception tonight at their home on West Wayne street.

Engineers Frank Tulley, Jno. Kennedy and James Hartigan, of the Nickel Plate, are attending the Brotherhood of Engineers' convention in session at Chicago.

Sheriff George Viberg has purchased for $2,000, Mrs. DeGroff Nelson's interest in her husband's unexpired term and will move into the jail residence. He also agreed to divide the profits of the unexpired term with her, if there are any after defraying the expenses of the office.

With appropriate ceremonies this morning, the flagstaff and iron fence marking the site of the old fort, was presented by Henry M. Williams to the city of Fort Wayne. Rev. Mr. Lloyd opened the exercises with prayer, and addresses were delivered by Captain A. H. Dougall, Mayor Muhler, F. P. Randall and Col. R. S. Robertson. Ninety-three years ago, General Anthony Wayne unfurled the flag over the old fort.

FOR CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL.

Fine Program Is Arranged for Thursday Evening.

Under the auspices of Paul homestead No. 856, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, a children's festival will be given in the lodge room at Odeon hall Thursday evening. The children are to be arranged in two groups—those under 8 years of age in one section and those from 8 to 14 in another. An attractive program has been arranged, and prizes for speaking, singing, etc., are to be given by the grand lodge. It will be a treat for the children, and all is free.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair — Dandruff Quickly Removed.

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories.

An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin, weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Special Agents, Meyer Bros. Co.—Adv.

CHEER MARSHALL ON IMMIGRATION

Governor Tells Californians He Would Bar the Undesirables.

HE RAPS AT JOHNSON

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—Gov. Thos. R. Marshall, of Indiana, democratic vice presidential candidate last night wound up a two day campaign in California by advocating the exclusion from the United States of all aliens who are not of a character to amalgamate with the American people. This argument was accepted with noisy approval by audiences which the Indiana executive addressed in San Francisco before his departure for Oregon.

"I am unalterably opposed," said Gov. Marshall, "to the granting of citizenship to any race of aliens, which by habit and by nature is absolutely unfitted to amalgamate with the American people.

"I believe in encouraging the immigration to this country of those peoples who will not alone understand and appreciate our institutions, but who, more than that are eager to adopt these institutions as their own. For such peoples we have room and opportunities. But for the peoples who never can mingle in political affairs, in business or in a social way with Americans, I say don't grant them citizenship."

Governor Marshall said he thought Governor Johnson, progressive candidate for vice president, should be in California remedying the state election law instead of campaigning in the east.

"We are spending $6,000 in Indiana," said Gov. Marshall as extra expense to give a place on the ballot to a party that will not poll a thousand votes. Yet here in California thousands of your republicans are prevented from casting their votes for Mr. Taft by a law which is neither decent nor American.

"Now I don't say that Gov. Johnson deliberately laid this mine, but certainly he was aware of what that law was going to do."

Governor Marshall, despite a continuous fall of rain, dedicated Indiana's site for a state building at the Panama-Pacific exposition today. He drove through the city last night to attend three large gatherings, two of which were democratic political meetings and the third the annual assemblage of the San Francisco Gaelic league.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday Are Our Formal Fur Opening Days

The Most Magnificent Display of Rich and Beautiful Furs Ever Shown in the City

Opening days in our Fur Section! And every woman's time to meet fashion's demand for fine Furs. Everything is splendidly ready for this opening—every new and lovely novelty, every practical sort of fur garment—every kind of luxurious coat. It is without doubt the finest and most pretentious showing of Furs this city has ever seen.

We cordially invite you to attend whether you are buying Furs this season or not—You will be charmed with the display.

Sumptuous Fur Sets

In the more practical Furs are fashionable sets and separate pieces of the following furs; the muffs very large, soft and pretty and the neck-pieces in the new animal effects.

Genuine Natural Marten.
Genuine Dyed Marten.
Genuine Beaver.
Genuine Black Fox.
Genuine Red Fox.
Genuine Virginia Grey Fox.
Genuine Jap Mink.
Genuine Near Seal.
Genuine French Lynx.

There is also a wonderful showing of Eastern and Northwestern Mink, in new and fashionable effects—a separate and distinct display all by itself.

Among the Exquisite Novelties

Genuine White Iceland Fox, Sables, Hudson Seal, Ermine and mole. The last is of peculiar interest because it lends itself so well to the new draped fashions.

A POLITICAL DISCUSSION.

Attitude of the Five Parties Presented at Chruch Meeting.

The Men's club of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ met last evening in the church and held a political debate, the merits of the five parties participating in the present presidential campaign being presented by members of the respective parties. The five-sided debate was a most interesting one.

Dr. W. D. Calvin presided and the speakers were: Col. D. N. Foster, for the progressives; W. S. Hackett, for the prohibitionists; E. G. Hoffman for the democrats; H. Willard Smith, for the socialists, and Judge Sol. A. Wood for the republicans.

A straw vote was taken, the ladies as well as the men voting, and resulted as follows: Roosevelt 60, Wilson 15, Taft 11, Debs 10, Chafin 6.

* * *

LADIES' AID SOCIETIES.

Meetings by Women of Westminster and Calvary U. B. Church

The Ladies' Aid society of the Westminster Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D Lewis, 914 West Wayne street, at 2:30 o'clock.

Forty Hours Devotions Close.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Alerding officiated on Tuesday evening at the solemn closing of forty hours devotions at St. Paul's church. Twenty-four visiting priests were in attendance besides an immense congregation. The sermon for the occasion was delivered by Rev. John F. Noll, pastor of St. Mary's church, Huntington. His topic was "Frequent Reception of Holy Communion" and was based on the text, "I am the bread of life." Fifty of the little schoolboys and girls dressed in white participated in the imposing procession.

Had the Fall Opening.

The Walther league of the Zion Lutheran church inaugurated the bowling season last evening in the league's bowling alley rooms. Games of various sorts were played, among them pedro. In pedro the first and second prizes went to Henry Koehnlein and Otto Scheimann, respectively, and in bowling to Reinhard Gehle and William Wolf, jr. A straw vote was taken with the following results: Wilson, 38; Roosevelt, 11; Taft, 1; Debs, 4. In a guessing contest in connection with the straw vote August Bicknese won the prize.

Diocesan Society Met.

The board of directors of the Diocesan Mutual Relief association met this afternoon in semi-annual conference at the bishop's residence, this city. Bishop Alerding is president of the board and the other directors are John Bathe, of Avilla; A. M. Ellering, of Michigan City; S. T. Seroczynski, of Hammond; R. J. Pratt, of Kokomo; Charles A. Dhe, of Fowler, and William Schmidt, of Muncie. All of the church property of the diocese is insured in this organization.

* * *

Will Give Reception.

The Epworth League of the First Methodist church will hold a reception in the church parlors on Thursday evening of this week in honor of its president, Erman Campbell, and his wife, who were recently married. This will give the young people a chance to become acquainted with Mrs. Campbell, who was formerly Miss Leota Burke, of Wabash, Ind.

* * *

Bishop Returns Home.

Bishop Alerding returned Tuesday evening from Avilla, where in the morning he administered confirmation at St. Mary's church, of which Rev. John H. Bathe is pastor. The class numbered 126. Among the attending priests were Rev. Simon M Yenn of this city and Rev. Bernard Wiedau of New Haven.

* * *

Begins October 30th.

The forty hours devotions will begin at the Cathedral on Wednesday, October 30, and close Friday evening, November 1, at which time the bishop will officiate. The devotions will be conducted by Rev. J. R. Rosswinkel, S. J., a prominent Jesuit missionary of Chicago.

* * *

Entertain Graduates.

The alumnae association of the St. Catherine's academy will this evening at the St. Patrick's Lyceum entertain in honor of the graduating class of 1912, at which time the members of the class will be received into the association. There will be music, games and refreshments.

* * *

HAVE PLANS FOR NEW CLUB HOUSE

Commercial Club Building Committee to Hold a Meeting.

WILL MAKE REPORT

A meeting of the committee appointed by the Commercial club to make plans for the proposed new club building will be held tomorrow night at which time the members will examine the drawings completed today by Mahurin & Mahurin, architects.

The plans submitted to the club by the Messrs. Mahurin, show a magnificent, nine-story brick and stone structure, which will include besides club rooms and an auditorium, a rathskeller in the basement, a cafe on the first floor, three floors of hotel rooms, two floors for offices, and a roof garden. The drawing has been mounted and is on exhibition in the lobby of the Commercial club.

At this date the committee has made no report. All is waiting until the site committee secures enough data to start a working basis for the general building committee. T. F. Thieme, president of the club, will return from a business trip tomorrow morning and Chairman J. R. McCulloch, of the new building committee, has called a meeting of the members for tomorrow night.

Mrs. Mason Long, of Columbia avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret Zoe, to Clarence Arthur Strayer, son of Mrs. Martha Strayer, of Indianapolis. Miss Long has many friends and her engagement has been known to the most intimate of them for several weeks but the formal announcement is made today, as it is her birth anniversary, and the wedding is to take place in the early part of the winter. Mr. Strayer is well known in Fort Wayne and to his personal friends is familiarly known as Jerry. He is connected with the Baker Vawter Company of Chicago and makes frequent business trips to this part of Indiana. Miss Long is the second daughter of Mrs. Kitty Henderson Long and her father, Mason Long, was a well known business man in the city for many years previous to his death. Miss Long is a granddaughter of Mrs. Angeline Henderson, one of the older citizens of the city who enjoys a large acquaintance. For many years both the Henderson and Long families have been closely identified with the First Baptist church. This evening Mrs. Long will give a family dinner party in celebration of her daughter's birthday anniversary and one of the guests will be Mrs. Strayer, of Indianapolis. Covers will be laid for twelve.

Mrs. William H. Noll, of West Berry street, gave the first of a series of bridge parties this afternoon, entertaining about thirty-five ladies. The livingroom was decorated with autumn foliage, oak leaves of russet brown predominating, and yellow chrysanthemums. In the diningroom Richmond roses lent their perfume and beauty to the table and other rooms displayed either one or the other of the same variety of beautiful flowers. Monogramed score cards and a delicious supper were other features of the entertainment. Mrs. Joseph Berghoff and Mrs. Cornel Morganthaler assisted in keeping tallies of the game.

Miss Catherine Belger, who is to be a bride of next week, was honored by a party of beautiful appointment given last evening at the home of Miss Marie Miller, of East DeWald street. Miss Miller was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Harry Miller. The decorations were particularly appropriate for a pre-nuptial party and very lovely. Everything was in white. The table was laid with a Battenburg lace cover and above it was a shower of white satin ribbon. The ends of the ribbon were carried to each plate and a bride rose and its foliage was attached to each ribbon. There were covers for fourteen. Miss Belger's chair was indicated by a big bow of tulle and roses and a corsage bouquet of bride roses lay at her plate. In the center of the table stood a bride doll, decked in every bit of bridal costuming from veil to bouquet. She was the subject of much admiration. The menu for a tempting supper was carried out in white as far as possible, a bridal cake, ices and sandwiches all expressive of the coming event. During the evening each guest wrote a recipe and they were placed in a dainty book together and presented to Miss Belger, who also received from her friends some pieces of handsome china. Tomorrow evening Miss Irene Lennon, of South Harrison street, a cousin of Miss Belger, will entertain in her honor. Several other parties have been planned before the Moran-Belger wedding takes place.

There will be a pretty home wedding this evening at 6 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Young, of Wilt street, when their daughter, Miss Elma, will become the bride of Carl H. Stogdill. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. H. P. Dannecker. The bride's brother, Will A. Young, will play the wedding music and Miss Leah Stogdill, a sister of the bridegroom, and Arthur Young, a brother of the bride, will act as the attendants.

The Maude Muller club will give a public pedro party in Dehm's hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vinson, of Wagner street, are leaving for Montgomery, Ala., for the winter.

Mrs. William F. Graeter has returned from a visit to her daughter, Miss Myrtle Graeter, at Depauw university.

Mrs. W. S. Morris and son are home from a visit at St. Louis, Miss Helen Morris remaining for a longer stay.

Mrs. Sam R. Taylor has as guests for the convention her nieces, Misses Belle and Minnie Houghton, of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Eva Rohbuck and Mrs. Dickson, of Wabash, are the guests of Mrs. Miles F. Porter during the convention.

Mrs. Jos. Fry, of Kalamazoo, Mich., sister of W. G. Cartwright, has returned home after a visit with her brother.

Mrs. M. R. Lacy, 454 Montgomery street, will be the hostess for the Up-to-Date Thimble club at the first meeting of the season Thursday afternoon.

Miss Enid Johnson is going to New York city soon to study music and the voice, especially, with Nelson G. Burritt.

Mrs. Thomas Stack, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. P. Breen, left today for her home in Columbus. Mrs. Stack was formerly Miss Katherine Durham.

Miss Merica Hoagland, of Indianapolis, is in the city to attend the convention of clubs and is the guest of Mrs. C. M. Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bohn, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bohn, left today for their home in Hermiston, Ore.

Mrs. Daniel Dickey Haines and Mrs. Samuel Rowland, two prominent Crawfordsville club women, are the guests of Mrs. G. M. Naylor, of West Main street.

Mrs. Bert Sels, of Indianapolis, is visiting Mrs. George H. Koons, of West Wayne street. Mrs. Sels is a delegate to the Women's Federation of Clubs, which meets here this week.

Mrs. G. Lawrence, of Sherman street, has as her guests Mrs. Jennie Elberson, of Chicago; Mrs. D. Dennis, of New York, and Mrs. R. P. Brown, of Parsons, Kan.

The Sphinx club had its first dance of the season Tuesday evening at Hanker's hall. The event was for members and their friends, and about fifty couples enjoyed a most pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Potts, of Canausbury, Pa., are in the city spending a few days with their son, Rev. T. P. Potts, and wife. Mr. Potts has for years been the editor of the Canausbury Herald.

Miss Louise Pickard gave a charming little party last evening at her home in West Wayne street in honor of her guest, Miss Alline Parks, of Atlanta, Ga. Yesterday afternoon Miss Helen Colerick gave an informal bridge for Miss Parks.

Miss Gertrude Pollock was very pleasantly surprised at her home on South Calhoun street last evening in honor of her birthday. The guests were members of the Twe-Twi club, and included the Misses Nellie Bozer, Mina Hirschman, Jennie Wright, Louise Cattez, Mamie Woehnker, Julia Hilliker, Irene Hurley, Rose Rentschman, Mamie Quinn, Loretta Martin and Regina Smith. A very enjoyable evening was spent in games and music, and at a late hour Mrs. Pollock served a delicious supper.

In honor of their forthcoming departure for their new home in Minnesota, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Lucas, of Lawton place, were tendered a very enjoyable surprise party a few evenings ago. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warner, Dr. and Mrs. George Gillie, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Binder, Mrs. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Bickel, Mrs. Smith and Mr. Bickel, sr., Mrs. George Jaap, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. McQuiston, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. Shephard, Misses Minnie Young, DeEtta Lucas, Angela Roy, Goldie Shepard, Marion Bickel, Florence Roy, Jean Gillie and the Messrs. Emery Shepard, Isadore, Roy and Maurice Sordelet.

Hyams and McIntyre in "The Girl of My Dreams" Saturday.

Jos. M. Gaites' most plenteous offering of good things comical and musical, John Hyams and Leila McIntyre, in the delightful play, "The Girl of My Dreams," will be the attraction at the Majestic theater on Saturday matinee and night.

John Hyams, one of the stars, is exceptionally clever. He knows the value of every funny line and situation and it is impossible not to laugh at and with him. Leila McIntyre, as the demure little Quakeress, has made a decided hit, dancing and singing her way into favor. The "O-o-h (Maybe It's a Robber") number introduced by Miss McIntyre and Mr. Hyams is delightful interpreted.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

"Madame Sherry" This Evening.

In "Madame Sherry," a musical production that has scored a success of greater magnitude than any musical piece offered in the metropolis in a score of years, the master touch and manner are said to be vitally contributing elements accounting for the production's furore. Aside from the notes of mirth struck by the story—and past performance has demonstrated that no one better than Lederer knows how to effect stage fun—"Madame Sherry" is said to fascinate not alone by its score with its ravishing "Ev'ry Little Movement Has a Meaning All Its Own" theme, but to enthrall as well by the general beauty shimmering throughout the production's three acts. The scenic opportunities for the artistry are a New York gilded youth's studio, with bevies of dancing feminine guests devoted to Grecian terpsichore, the salon of a millionaire's yacht, under full sail in the waters off Coney Island, with her feminine guests as models for the ingenuity and taste in costuming. The conduct of every member of the cast, which term takes in the feminine chorus, is said, too, to reflect this general sense of beauty, a quality that one unconsciously appreciates, who listens to many of the airs of the published score of the production. "Madame Sherry" is to be presented here at the Majestic theater this evening.

Since whaling ships—and their men—are passing away so fast it is fortunate that an enduring record of this strange vocation has been made before it becomes a "lost art" entirely. Such a record was made recently by Lyman H. Howe in the most modern, and, at the same time, the best method of recording facts—animated photography. The scenes which will be presented at the Majestic theater on Thursday and Friday evenings are superior to written history, because they are more truthful. Unlike writers or lecturers, the tiny films are strictly impartial. They are not the plaything of illusions or victims of imperfect senses, bias or prejudice to which human historians are more or less subject, whether unconsciously or not. They cannot misconstrue or distort facts. The story they tell, whatever it may be, is immutable, irrevocable, and cannot be contradicted. Consequently the views Mr. Howe presents are far more reliable than any written description and in this instance they are all the more so because very few authoritative books on whaling have been written.

AT THE TEMPLE

Rats of education and culture are rather charming animals to meet. There are forty of them at the Temple this week—performers if you please—which would win the heart of the most timid woman. Such fastidious rats were never seen. Each morning before breakfast they must have their tub and for breakfast nothing but the finest of grains and sunflower seeds will satisfy their palates. Like other actors they must keep late hours and enjoy the luxury of the late sleep. Prof. Roberts, their tamer, introduced them as the only educated rats in the world. At any rate they are the only performing rats on the stage and wonderful little animals they are. The forty include nearly every variety of rat. Among them are Japanese rats, common house or barn rats and common wharf rats. They display remarkable intelligence, being able to do all manner of tricks.

How to Gain Flesh

A simple but sure way to increase the weight, it is asserted by several well known physicians, is to take regularly for several months, one or two 3 grain hypophosphite tablets after each meal. These little tablets have the distinguished merit of increasing the red and white blood corpuscles, aiding digestion and promoting assimilation and absorption of the elements in the food which go to make blood and solid tissues. They are obtainable in sealed packages from physicians and well stocked apothecary shops.

RECKLESS DRIVER HITS BUGGY.

G. Abdon, of 915 Barr street, reported to the police yesterday that an automobile traveling at great speed, struck the buggy which he was driving at Buchanan and Smith streets on Monday night, and threw him to the ground. Mr. Abdon escaped injury, although the machine failed to stop and the identity could not be learned.

NEW RATES OF WOODMEN VOID

Head Camp Cannot Change Without Consent of Members.

CONTRACT IS UPHELD

Des Moines, Oct. 23.—Proposed changes in the law governing the Modern Woodmen of America are in direct violation of the vested contract rights of the members and are null and void so far as they attempt to change the rates without the consent of the members, according o a ruling handed down by Judge Charles S. Bradshaw, of the equity division of the district court.

The decision was given in a case wherein the insurgent wing of the organization asked the court to set aside and annul certain changes in the articles of the association's by-laws adopted by the head camp of the Woodmen at an adjourned session held in Chicago in January, 1912.

Court Gives Contract Rights.

The court held:

First, that under a certificate of this character the holder occupies toward the society a dual relation; he, as a member of the corporation, is bound by all reasonable by-laws enacted by the corporation, whether they come into existence before or after the issuance of his certificate. He also occupies the position of a person holding a contract with the society and as such stands on the same footing as any other person making a contract with it.

Second, that the contract of insurance consists of the certificate of application for membership, the articles of association, by-laws of the society and the statutes of the state of Illinois relating thereto.

Fourth, that there is no difference in principle between reducing the amount of benefit and increasing the price charged for the benefit.

Fifth, that the proposed change in the law is a direct violation of the vested rights of the plaintiffs and other members, and is null and void so far as it attempts to change the rates or plan without the consent of the member.

Sixth, that the amendments are illegal and void because not adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members.

Third, that the new law of he society proposes to change both the rate and plan of insurance, and both rate and plan are a part of the members' contract.

Mrs. Marshment's Original Recipes.

As Demonstrated at The Sentinel Free Cooking School.

MAPLE SUGAR BISCUIT.—Three cups sifted flour, two heaping teaspoonfuls baking powder, one level teaspoon of salt, one large spoonful of lard, one and one-half cups milk. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together, work in the lard, add milk and mix to a soft dough. Turn out on a floured board, roll out and cut. Take two rounds, spread one with melted butter and the other with grated maple sugar. Place one on top of the other and bake twenty minutes.

DELICIOUS APPLE PUDDING—Pare and chop half dry apples; grease a paper bag mould; cover the bottom half an inch deep with bread crumbs; add a lump of butter, then a layer of apples; sprinkle well with sugar, nutmeg, and repeat until the mould is full, leaving the last layer crumbs; pour over all one cup cold water; bake thirty minutes. No sauce is needed.

COURT ACCUSES SIX OF PERJURY

Judge Landis Hits Slimy Dishonesty of Bankruptcy Court.

THREE GO TO JAIL

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Judge Kenesaw M. Landis yesterday accused two whole families of perjury. He sentenced three men to jail for thirty days for contempt of court and three women, who, he said also had sworn falsely, only escaped similar sentence because the judge thought them guilty because of a mistaken sense of loyalty.

"It is the experience of this court," said Judge Landis, "that women always will rally to the aid of their husbands when their husbands are in trouble. Perjury is nothing to them, if they can help their men."

Men Sentenced to Jail.

The three men sentenced to jail were Frank Blacklidge, of 1531 East Seventy-first street; his son-in-law, Benjamin E. Evans, and Harry Dodge Jones, a South Chicago barber. The women were the wife and daughter of Blacklidge and the wife of Evans.

They had been summoned to court to testify in Evans' bankruptcy case. The court wanted to know the truth about the sale of a grocery at 7000 Washington avenue by Evans to Blacklidge. This transaction had taken place a few days before Oct. 18, when a petition in bankruptcy was filed by Evans' creditors. Blacklidge, through his lawyer, Henry J. Gibbs, had moved the court to turn the property over to Blacklidge as assignee in a bill of sale. If this were done the property would be taken out of the reach of Evans' creditors.

Blacklidge testified he had bought the store with $2,400 which his wife had kept hidden in the bottom of an upright piano. His wife and daughter corroborated this testimony. Jones, under oath, told the court that Evans had borrowed $1,650 from him one day while he was being shaved in Jones' barber shop.

Court Queries Witnesses.

"Did he pay you back?" demanded the court.

"He did," replied the witness.

"Have you got the $1,650 now?"

"No."

"What did you do with it?"

"I lost it betting on the races at Porter," asserted Jones.

"That stuff about losing money on the races has been exploded time and time again in the bankruptcy courts," Judge Landis burst out. "Your story is absolutely false. The testimony of every witness in this case has been a fabric of lies. There is a conspiracy on foot here to loot an estate in bankruptcy. You people have become infected by the slimy atmosphere of dishonesty that saturates the bankruptcy court."

Judge Landis then sentenced the three men to prison.

Laid a Firm Hand.

"Marshall law" laid a firm hand on the Mineral Springs race track yesterday. Chicago sports who clambered from the special trains in the early afternoon were turned away from the racing plant at the point of bayonets held by determined Indiana guardsmen. Four "jumpers" who went to the post met with a like reception. It was the fulfillment of Governor Marshall's edict that the track be closed.

Last night Brigadier General Charles A. Garrard, quartermaster general, and Assistant Attorney General Thomas Brannan had two companies of guardsmen bivouaced in the clubhouse and stables of the palatial racing plant. They were prepared to repulse any effort to reopen the track, which for a week past has been a mecca for the gambling fraternity. General Garrard said they were there to stay until Governor Marshall recalled them and forthwith laid in a week's supply of food for his men.

Will Go to Courts.

The race track owners abdicated without bloodshed in the face of the governor's display of military strength. They gathered last night, however, and at a long conference decided to take the affair to the courts. An injunction probably will be asked. The racing men declare they will resume the racing program the moment the guardsmen are removed, even if it be in the dead of winter.

The promoters were incensed at Governor Marshall and the newspapers. They accused the state executive of currying newspaper favor by closing the track. A. F. Knotts, principal owner of the track, publicly termed him a "pin head."

After the troops had taken possession Knotts, who is a Gary, Ind., lawyer, a brother of the mayor of that place and a former state legislator, caused the following notice to be chalked on the announcement blackboard:

Just as soon as executive anarchy is suppressed legal racing will proceed.

Accuses the Governor.

Then he gave out an interview charging the governor with having become religious because of his vice presidential aspirations, but with having winked at gambling previously. He declared the fight would be to the last ditch. He also started an expose of gambling in other sections of the state.

"If Governor Marshall is so religiously opposed to gambling, then he should quit the vice presidential race, because he knowingly is a 'political horse' upon whom thousands of dollars are being wagered," said Knotts. "Odds on his chances are posted every day and he has made no protest.

"Governor Marshall is much exercised over alleged gambling at Mineral Springs. He knows, and everybody else knows, that for years open gambling has been in progress at French Lick. The patrons bet on tin horses, on whirligigs and other gambling paraphernalia. In Indianapolis and South Bend there are open poolrooms. Two-thirds of the patrons at French Lick are Chicagoans. From his attitude I would infer that men who come twenty miles to Mineral Springs are Chicago thugs and those who go 150 miles to French Lick are Chicago gentlemen."

Tells of Race Track.

Mr. Knotts then unburdened himself as to who controls Mineral Springs.

"No Chicago gambler ever did have or will have any interest in these grounds," he said. "The only Chicagoan connected with it is Ben Hyman, and he is only an employe. All of the others are Indiana business men. We intend to erect here a big hotel, golf links, baseball grounds and all other things needed for a sort of a country club for the general public. Racing is only incidental to our plans.

"We don't want gambling here. If there has been any violation in that respect it has been by individuals and not by the association. We haven't accepted a dollar from gamblers, and if any betting has been done it was of a minor character. No one has been arrested and convicted of gambling on this track and no one has made affidavit to the fact." (All this in spite of the fact that "bookies" paid $25 a day for the privilege of openly taking bets at the track.)

Plans to Reopen.

"They brought injunction proceedings against us and then dismissed them," Knotts continued. "Since then the state has made no move to exercise civil law. We intend to find out whether martial law takes precedence over civil law. It is a violation of constitutional rights for troops to take forcible possession of and quarter on our plant except in time of war. We propose to get our rights and will re-open the moment we legally see our way clear."

Under the Sellers law Mr. Knotts said his association was entitled to fifteen days of racing. He said the meeting was legal and sanctioned by the Indiana statute. Then he opened up a vitriolic attack on the governor.

"If any one has violated the law it's Marshall," he declared. "He's a pinhead—the worst pin-headed governor we ever had."

Gambling Stories True.

Assistant Attorney General Brannan took exception to Mr. Knotts' version of the affairs at the track. He said Burns detectives had corroborated in every detail the stories of open gambling.

"The governor made a personal investigation," he said, "and found the law was being openly violated. It was an emergency case and he took emergency measures—ordered the national guard here to stop gambling.

"It is an unusual case, but so was it unusual that the local authorities refused to suppress the gambling. The governor has not declared martial law. He has merely sent troops here to do what the county authorities won't do."

Threats of the promoters to sue the state for damages were laughed at by Mr. Brannan.

"They absolutely have no standing in court," he said. "Every act of the governor was legal."

No Bond for Governor.

When told of a threat by Ben Hyman that "they would recover damages on the governor's bond," Mr. Brannan said the Indiana executive was under no bond.

Brigadier General Garrard said he and Major George W. Freyermuth, of the second battalion, who are in command of company F of South Bend, and company M of Rensselaer, both of the Third infantry, have no orders other than to stay at the track and see it does not reopen. That he expects the siege to be a long one was evidenced by the fact that last night he ordered kitchen ranges shipped from Indianapolis and laid in a big supply of provisions.

BASEBALL ATHLETICS

SIGNED TO PLAY AT $40 A MONTH

Frank Chance Now Able to Retire from Base Ball With Fortune.

WOULDN'T BE A CLERK

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Following the announcement of President Murphy, of the Chicago Cubs, that Frank L. Chance would not manage the team next season, Chance disposed of the 16 per cent. of the Chicago Cub's stock which he held, and, although he still says he stands ready to renew his contract with Murphy, his action is generally taken to mean that he has bid farewell to baseball. Chance is considered a wealthy man and can afford to retire. His stock in the club, he states, has been sold to Harry Ackerland, of Pittsburgh for $40,000. It cost Chance $10,000 par value, and it is said to have netted him 100 per cent. each year since he bought it seeral years ago.

Chance is one of the comparatively few baseball players who have shared as partners in the great prosperity and growth of the national pastime within the last decade. When C. W. Murphy in the fall of 1905 secured from Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, the money lacking to swing the deal for the purchase of the Cubs, Chance secured a 16 per cent. interest on the same terms as Murphy secured a majority of holding.

In 1906 the Cubs won the National league pennant and lost the world's championship to the White Sox. The club that year practically paid itself out. Chance's share of the profits was within $50 of the cost of his 16 per cent. interest. The amount was made up to him as a sentimental present.

In 1898, only eight years before, Chance, without even a minor league reputation, joined the Cubs at a salary of $1,200 a year. Now his wealth is estimated at $125,000 aside from his interest in the Cubs. This sum represents his baseball earnings and dividends and returns from profitable investments in California.

When Chace became of age the same year he joined the Cubs he had a fortune of $15,000 from his father's estate, but most of this was spent before his salary went far above the $1,200 mark, so his present fortune was derived from baseball.

Frank Leroy Chance was born on Sept. 9, 1877, at Fresno, Cal. He is of English-Scotch extraction, although both parents were American born. His father was president of the Fresno National bank of Fresno. He has four brothers, two older and two younger, and one young married sister. His mother is still living. In 1901 he was married to Miss Edith Pancake, his boyhood sweetheart, at Fresno, who was then living in Chicago.

Chance attended the public schools in Fresno. After the death of his father in 1891 he was sent to Washington college at Irvington, Cal. He was catcher of the college nine in 1893-4-5, but instead of graduating decided to become a professional baseball player, against the wishes of his family, who wanted him to become a bank clerk. Frank was led to his decision by a former classmate, Rod Wagner, who was manager of a semi-professional club at Sullivan, Ill. So in 1896 he signed with Sullivan at a salary of $40 a month. Just how much he actually received Frank does not remember, but it was not par on the promise.

Inasmuch as his Sullivan experience proved costly to his family, counting railroad fares, his mother objected strongly to a continuation of baseball as a precarious occupation and Chance returned to college in 1897. He found time to play ball on Saturdays and Sundays on the Fresno team, which was entered in a Pacific coast amateur championship tournament promoted by a San Francisco newspaper. Fifty or sixty clubs were entered in the elimination tourney and the Fresno team traveled as far as Portland before the contest was ended. Fresno finished third.

In this league Chance batted .479 and his work attracted attention of major league scouts. Offered positions with New York, Baltimore and Chicago (Baltimore offering $300 more salary than Chicago) Chance chose Chicago because of the better opening, for Tim Donahue was the only regular catcher. He joined the club at West Baden, Ind., on March 8.

That season Chance caught 27 games and played the outfield in 15 more, batting .288 and stealing only five bases. In 1899 he caught in 51 games, batted .289 and stole 19 bases. In 1903, when he was transferred to first base to give the team the use of his batting and base running every day, Chance led the league with 67 stolen bases.

When Franke Selee was compelled to surrender his position as manager on account of ill health in the season of 1905, Chance was named for the position by President James A. Hart. The following year, the first of four National league pennants was won. The others were in 1907, 1908 and 1910. The club won the world's pennant in 1907 and 1908 from Detroit and lost in the final series to the White Sox in 1906 and the Philadelphia Athletics in 1910. It was during the period of success that Chance was given the title of peerless leader.

Chance probably will retire to Cub ranch at Glenora, Cal., a twenty-six acre tract which produced 12,000 boxes of oranges this season at a profit of $12,000. The property is valued at $70,000.

BIG TASK FACES CENTRAL LEAGUE

Meeting Here Will Start Things for Circuit of Next Year

EIGHT TEAMS IN 1913

Unless surface indications are deceiving the meeting of the directors of the Central league here next Monday will be more than an informal gathering for checking up the business of last season, awarding the pennant and partaking of Claude H. Varnell's banquet.

All of these things will be done, but they will constitute the minor part of the business of the gathering, as a fight will probably be started on the question of a circuit for next season. There are a number of possibilities that have been suggested, but the magnates, if they have anything in view, are saying little and are preparing to spring whatever has been hatched up without any warning.

Fort Wayne, Dayton, Grand Rapids and Springfield are certainties in the new organization. If Bobby Quinn's scheme to put teams in Toledo, Columbus and Indianapolis is put through the circuit question is settled right now.

However, Erie and Youngstown are to be dealt with. Both of them have proven good base ball towns, the magnates met all their obligations, turned out good crowds and are entitled to consideration in new circuit building. Wheeling will probably be clamoring for a place, but it has been tried and found wanting so often that it has little on which to base a claim for a berth. Zanesville has probably learned that it is not big enough for class B ball and is ready to quit. Canton, however, insists that it will demand a berth and may cause a little trouble. Akron will be abandoned for want of patronage and Terre Haute is ready to enter the Three-I league and will not kick up any sort of a row. Then there is South Bend. One year in eight the club there yielded a profit. Other teams have played there to big losses and they are getting tired of it and in face of all of this the city will probably be here demanding a place.

It is natural for the stockholders to ask an opportunity to get back some of the money they lost last season, but not reasonable to expect that the other clubs will be willing to give this chance at a certain loss to themselves.

There is little doubt that Louis Heilbroner will be made president, as there is no opposition to him, because he is generally conceded to be the right man for the place. Dr. Carson will likely make room for him to get in the saddle at once.

There is bound to be a bitter fight when the magnates get together. There will be no twelve-club league next year, but there are ten cities that want to get in an eight-club league and this is where the rub comes, as all of them have some well founded claim for places.

Mr. Varnell will probably come to Fort Wayne on Sunday to prepare for entertaining the magnates and the sessions will be held at the Wayne hotel.

PROMISES SOME NEW FACES.

Bert Annis Looking Over Situation at Grand Rapids.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 23.—Bert Annis, owner of the Grand Rapids Central league club, is in the city looking after his business interests and incidentally feeling the fans out as to their sentiments regarding the size of the 1913 circuit, which will be decided at the annual meeting of te league at Fort Wayne on Oct. 28.

He says the only promises he will make regarding next year's team is that he will make every effort to get together a winner. He says at least that he will give the fans many new faces and that his 1913 line-up will be practically a new one.

THE DAVID HARUM OF BASEBALL—THAT'S MICHAEL J. KELLY.

When It Comes to Swapping Players, There Are Mighty Few Managers Who Can Put Anything Over on Mike.

Michael J. Kelly, manager of the St. Paul American association team, is the David Harum of the game, and the stormy petrel of the association.

He has more friends who are "for him" and more enemies who are "agin him" than any man in baseball—unless it is Charlie Murphy, of the Cubs.

Kelly has managed St. Paul from the start, save when he was blackballed by the league, as the result of Umpire "Brick" Owens being mobbed by a St. Paul crowd, followed by some caustic remarks by Mike to the effect that Owens was against his team. During his absence Kelly was in the Eastern league and St. Paul went along like a spavined horse.

St. Paul was a winner under Kelly, and Lennon secured his reinstatement. So insistent were they that 25,000 fans signed a "We want Kelly" petition, and it was sent to the A. A. magnates. The result was the return of Kelly.

Kelly made baseball in St. Paul, despite the drawing power of Minneapolis. He made money for the stockholders, chiefly by selling young players for fancy prices. Now he is said to be slated to manage the Indianapolis club.

Kelly developed Marty O'Toole and sold him to Pittsburgh for $22,500 (whether regular or stage money is a matter of opinion) and then induced Pittsburgh to take Catcher Bill Kelly for $6,500.

This was pulled off in 1911. This year Kelly lived up to his reputation by sending Shortstop Artie Butler to Pittsburgh in exchange for Infielders McKechnie and Bohg, Pitcher Harry Gardner and two players to be delivered this winter.

The St. Paul manager has the faculty of developing youngsters no one else can see anything in. He looks them over as a buyer would a bit of horseflesh, examines them with an X-ray and if he finds what he is looking for, proceeds to develop the youngster into an asset which sooner or later commands a high price and lands the boy in a major league.

Kelly purchased Harry Steinfeldt from the Cubs, Harry having supposedly outlived his usefulness. Steiny went to the Saints for the proverbial "song," but did not like the scenery and Kelly didn't like his playing. He was traded to the Boston Nationals for Outfielder Josh Clarke and Artie Butler was tossed in for good measure.

Later Clark was sold to Kansas City for more than Steinfeldt cost St. Paul, and Butler developed into a star. Scarce had the season opened before Butler's playing attracted a half dozen major league scouts.

Pittsburgh got Butler because Dreyfuss offered the best deal in players. It is said Kelly received $1,000 in cash for making the deal. What he received for "putting over", the O'Toole-Kelly thing, only he and Lennon know.

Kelly's contract calls for him to remain in St. Paul for another year, but George Lennon has told him he can go to Indianapolis if he can better himself. Whether he will do so probably depends upon the sort of a contract he can make with Owner W. H. Watkins. Jimmy Burke and Charley O'Leary could not stand for the interference they encountered there. Kelly will go forewarned, and those who know him say he will stand no foolish interference from stockholders who own four or five shares of stock.

KELLY LOOKS 'EM OVER AS A BUYE R WOULD A BIT OF HORSEFLESH.

KILLS WIFE; CALLS POLICE.

Former Asylum Inmate's Terrible Deed at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—"I've just killed my wife," said a voice over the telephone to police headquarters yesterday. "You'd better come get me in a hurry before I kill myself."

At the address given the police found Mrs. Alice Currier dead on the kitchen floor. George, her husband, told the police his wife attacked him in a delirium resulting from typhoid fever with a knife and a pistol and that he had shot her in self-defense.

As the woman lay on the floor, the husband asserts, she said to him: "Well, George, you'd better finish me," so he shot her again. Currier formerly was an inmate of the Napa Island asylum.

ONE KILLED; FOUR INJURED.

Big Four Engine Crashes Into Street Car at Terre Haute.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 23.—One man was killed and four were injured when a Big Four engine and caboose ran into a street car at North Thirteenth street and Eighth avenue railroad crossing late last night. The dead: Howard Bevis, 23 years old, conductor on street car.

The injured: Walter Pritchett, 15 years old, leg broken; Alian Kuhl; Gordon L. Decamp and Leonard Kiser, bruised and cut.

Bevis was dragged seventy-five feet under the engine.

DRUNKARDS TO FACE MIRRORS.

Must "See Themselves as Others See Them" in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Oct. 23.—So drunkards and street fighters can "see themselves as others see them," a large mirror will be placed in the court room of the southwestern police station. This plan will be inaugurated by Justice Ulrich. A man was brought in yesterday and he looked badly. The magistrate thought his image in a mirror would go far to reform him.

CONTRACTS MADE FOR THE ALLEYS

Abe Langtry Starts Work on the A. B. C. Meeting at Toledo.

EXPECTS BIG RESULTS

Toledo, O., Oct. 23.—"I look for the biggest tournament in the history of the American Bowling congress," were the words of genial "Abe" Langtry, the big secretary of the A. B. C. shortly before he left for his home in Milwaukee after signing the contracts for the sixteen alleys to be furnished the annual convention of the bowlers of the United States.

"Last year we had about 500 teams at Chicago; when we first proposed Toledo as the next site for the tourney we did not expect to reach the 500 mark in team entries, for Chicago alone supplied about one-third of their own entries. Now, however, I am firmly convinced that Toledo will do as well and probably better than did the Windy city. The bowlers in every city I have visited in the course of my journeys—Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Detroit and even St. Paul—are all enthusiastic over coming to Toledo.

"As far as I have been able to ascertain Ohio is to be very well represented here, while many teams can be expected from Buffalo, Pittsburgh and Washington, the three big eastern ten-pin centers."

Before attending the meeting of the local tournament company, at which the contracts for the Terminal alleys were signed, Langtry made a short, informal address at the opening of the Colonnade alleys, in which he complimented Toledo for the new tenpin site.

"Te game," said Langtry in the course of his remarks, "is but in its infancy here, despite the fact that Toledo bowlers have been on the map for more than a decade. People all over the country are just beginning to awake to the fact that the sport is a big proposition. Much money is being spent on the game, and the patrons are deserving of the best they can get.

"Toledo will have a good chance to see what a big thing bowling is when the American Bowling congress convenes here next year, for then they will learn to what extent this winter pastime has gripped the people. There will be not only hundreds, but thousands of the best bowlers from Washington, D. C., to Vancouver and from Texas to Canada headed for Toledo and the tournament."

Langtry reached Toledo Monday afternoon and left shortly after completing his business here before midnight, as his personal affairs required his immediate attention. He, however, expects to return here before long to look after A. B. C. affairs here.

ELKHART MAN IS PLACED AT HEAD

Indiana Royal and Select Masters Conclude Session.

ROYAL ARCH FOLLOWS

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 23.—The fifty-seventh annual assembly of the grand council of the Royal and Select Masters of Indiana came to a close today. The annual assembly dinner was held last evening, and Charles L. Hutchinson, the retiring most illustrious grand master, acted as toastmaster

Responses were made by George E. Briggs, of Peekskill, N. Y., as representative of the Council of Indiana near the Grand Council of New York; Henry W. Mordhurst, of Fort Wayne, Ind., who spoke on "Thirty Years' Constant Attendance at the General Grand Council;" Judge Meade Vestal, of Noblesville, Ind., on "Information and Suggestion for Forming New Councils," and W. P. Hart on "The Fraternal Influences on Good Citizenship."

The annual election of officers yesterday afternoon resulted in Herbert A. Graham, of Elkhart, Ind., being advanced to the position of most illustrious grand master. The other newly elected officers are: Right illustrious deputy grand master, Charles D. Knoefel, of New Albany, Ind.; illustrious grand principal conductor of work, Charles W. Iliff, of Crawfordsville, Ind.; illustrious grand captain of the guard, L. Louis Hetzer, of Peru, Ind.; illustrious grand conductor of the council, Edgar H. Bristol, of Salem, Ind.; illustrious grand steward, Alexander Rumpler, of Indianapolis; illustrious grand recorder, Calvin W. Prather, of Indianapolis, and illustrious grand treasurer, Vestal W. Woodward, of Indianapolis. Henry W. Mordhurst, of Fort Wayne, Ind., was appointed chairman of the committee on foreign correspondence.

State Council Prospers.

The session opened with the reading of the reports of the officers. The report of Mr. Hutchinson showed that the council in the state has increased several hundred in membership during the last year and several new councils have been chartered. The aggregate membership of the council in Indiana now is 7,262. The report of Vestal W. Woodward, treasurer, showed the assets of the Grand Council to be $4,555.31. Calvin W. Prather, the grand recorder, reported that the year has been unusually prosperous. There are seventy-two councils in the state, he reported.

The Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons will convene this afternoon in the Masonic temple. It will be the sixty-seventh convocation and will continue through tomorrow morning.

PREACHERS BUILD CHURCH.

Twelave Clergymen at Sedalia, Mo., Wield Saw and Hammer.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 23.—With long coats and high hats laid aside, and attired in overalls and jumpers, twelve of the leading Protestant preachers of the city worked at the carpenter trade yesterday to construct a tabernacle in which revival services are to be held.

They finished the day with splinters in their fingers and muscles sore. Rev. Harold Cooper, of the First Congregational church, smashed his thumb, but bore the injury in humility and kept on working. Every member of the force promised to return to work today. They plan to complete the building by Friday.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

CHICAGO BARS TAG DAY.

Will Not Permit Soliciting Charity on the City Streets.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Chicago will never have another general "tag day" for charity, and in the future girls and women will not be permitted to solicit money throughout the city. Mayor Harrison deciding yesterday. Opposition to girls soliciting of charity funds from pedestrians has been announced by leaders of the past "tag day" and Mayor Harrison finally announced that there should be no more general "tag day" collections. Collectors may operate in territory adjacent to the charity they wish to aid, but no one is to be permitted o solici in the heart of the city.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

WHITE SLAVERS GUILTY.

Five Men at St. Joseph, Mo., Given Prison Sentences.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 3.—Five men pleaded guilty to charges of white slavery in the federal court yesterday. One of the cases grew out of the recent closing of the south side levee in Chicago. Travis and McMahan having accompanied two women here from Chicago. McMahan, Joseph Martin, of Atchison, Kan., and Harry Chapman were each sent to jail for three months and Ben F. Carson and Lustie Zadma were sentenced to two years in prison.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar, of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

IT'S FINE FOR Catarrh

Millions of Catarrh Victims Have Used Booth's HYOMEI with Wonderful Results

This picture shows the little hard rubber HYOMEI inhaler the exact size.

If you own one you can get a bottle of HYOMEI (liquid) for only 50 cts.

If you do not own one, $1.00 will secure for you a complete outfit, including inhaler. And now you have in your possession something that has banished more cases of catarrh than all the catarrh specialists on earth.

Just breathe HYOMEI—that's all you have to do—no stomach dosing. The soothing, healing air passes over the inflamed membrane, kills the germs and heals the inflammation.

It is guaranteed to end the distress of catarrh, coughs, croup and colds, or money back. Distributed by Meyer Bros. Co., and druggists everywhere.

Booth's HYOMEI (pronounce it Hi-o-me) is Australian Eucalyptus and other grand antiseptics. It cointains no cocaine or other injurious drugs.

WOULD DIVORCE TWO HUSBANDS.

Twice-Married Woman Brings Dual Suits at Sioux City.

Sioux City, Ia., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Allie Blackhawk yesterday shattered precedent in this county by filing suit for divorce and having two divorce actions pending against two husbands in the same court at the same time. Yesterday she sought release from John Blackhawk of Dakota City, Neb., an Indian, from whom she thought she was divorced at the time she married William G. Vlandery. A few days ago she asked for relase from the latter.

COMBINATION

It has reference to the happy combination that has made this bank the great success that everyone knows it to have been.

It refers to the fact that the officers are practical and successful bankers, while the directors are practical and successful business men.

That makes a combination mighty hard to beat, especially when the officers and directors all pull together.

This bank also combines the safety of a national bank with the conveniences of a savings bank. It maintains a saving department where interest is paid at the rate of 4 per cent.

"CASCARETTS" MAKE YOU FEEL GREAT

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passageway for a day or two—yes—but they don't take the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels clean and regular for months.—Adv.

PRE-CONVENTION FIGHTS COSTLY

Total of $1,675,226 Was Given in Struggle for Nominations.

WHERE IT CAME FROM

Washington, Oct. 23.—Taking into consideration all the information that has been laid before the Clapp investigating committee, the financing of seven campaigns for the presidential nominations this year calls for contributions amounting to $1,675,226.08. It is to be kept in mind, of course, that the investigating committee has not heard from all the campaign funds raised and expended locally in various states, but with the information in hand, computing on the basis of contributions made to general committees and organizations, and sent to various states and with specific knowledge of what state organizations did for themselves in Illinois, New York, Ohio, Michigan and Massachusetts, the record—since the national convention in June—stands as follows:

Roosevelt campaign	$ 667,677.56
Taft campaign	496,027.41
La Follette campaign	63,969.59
Wilson campaign	208,183.05
Harmon campaign	146,000.00
Underwood campaign	52,000.00
Clark campaign	50,468.50
Total	$1,675,226.08

More than one-half of this total was contributed by six men, while twelve men supplied practically two-thirds of the money that went into the pre-convention campaigns.

Here are twelve men who "put up" a total of $1,072,200.70, the list not going beyond those who contributed at least $25,000 each:

Charles P. Taft (Taft)	$ 213,592.41
Wm. Flinn (Roosevelt)	144,308.29
D. R. Hanna (Roosevelt)	177,000.00
G. W. Perkins (Roosevelt)	122,500.00
F. A. Munsey (Roosevelt)	118,000.00
T. F. Ryan (Harmon)	77,000.00
T. F. Ryan (Underwood)	35,000.00
C. H. Dodge (Wilson)	51,300.00
C. R. Crane (Wilson)	10,000.00
C. R. Crane (La Follette)	23,500.00
Andrew Carnegie (Taft)	25,000.00
J. Hays Hammond (Taft)	25,000.00
E. T. Stotesbury (Taft)	25,000.00
A. H. Cochran (Roosevelt)	25,000.00
Total	$1,072,200.70

Such well known personages as J. J. Hill and Gifford Pinchot fell into the class below the $25,000 contributors.

The Indiana Situation.

Testimony taken yesterday before the Clapp committee investigating campaign receipts and expenditures completed the story of the pre-convention funds of this year so far as they officially will be known before the coming election. The committee had intended to take an extended recess today, but at the instance of Senator Pomerene, a session will be held tomorrow for the purpose of hearing a group of witnesses from Indiana.

These witnesses, former Senator Beveridge among them, have been subpoenaed mainly to testify regarding money that was sent to Indiana in 1904, when Mr. Beveridge was candidate for the senate. Senator Pomerene had information which led him to think that George W. Perkins sent a large amount of money to the Hoosier state in 1904, but all he could get out of Mr. Perkins yesterday was that he had sent a check for $10,000 to Mr. Beveridge and that the latter had returned it.

There was a sharp clash in the executive meeting of the committee this evening when Senator Pomerene insisted on taking up the Indiana matters before the recess. Chairman Clapp intimated there was a scheme on foot among democrats and republicans to smash Beveridge's campaign for governor of Indiana and to disarrange his general speaking dates in behalf of the bull moose ticket. Senator Clapp, although anxious to get away, declares that if the committee is to hear some witnesses on the Indiana matter an opportunity ought to be given to Senator Beveridge's friends to submit evidence in support of charges they are making against the Fairbanks-Hemenway-Keeley organization in the Hoosier state.

The charges involve the financing of former Vice President Fairbanks' campaign for the senatorship back in 1902.

Why Have "Nerves?"

This is the reason why women have "nerves." When thoughts begin to grow cloudy and uncertain, impulses lag and the warnings of pain and distress are sent like flying messages throughout limbs and frame, straightway, nine times in ten, a woman will lay the cause of the trouble to some defect at the point where she first felt it. Is it a headache, a backache, a sensation of irritability or twitching and uncontrollable nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back, a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the womanly organs. In nine cases out of ten the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate special organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

Dr. Pierce, during a long period of practice, found that a prescription made from medicinal extracts of native roots, without the use of alcohol, relieved over 90 per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in form of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that would make it easily procurable, and it can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

MRS. LILA B. HAWKINS, of Zens, Va., writes: "I had been failing in health for two years—most of the time was not able to attend to my household duties. Female weakness was my trouble and I was getting very bad but, thanks to Doctor Pierce's medicines, I am well and strong again. I took only three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' and used the 'Lotion Tablets.' I have nothing but praise for Doctor Pierce's wonderful medicines."

WILL TALK TO UNION LABOR

Dr. H. M. Graham Coming Monday to Lecture on Women Suffrage.

COMES ON INVITATION OF THE FEDERATION

President James M. M'Crea, of the Pennsylvania, to Be Here Saturday.

James A. Lechler, president of the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, received a letter this morning from Dr. H. M. Graham, of Indianapolis, stating that she has accepted the invitation to deliver an address on "Woman Suffrage" to the labor union people of Fort Wayne and would be here for that purpose Monday evening. The meeting will be held at the usual place—Harmony hall—and it will be open to all union men, the members of their families and to all others interested. Dr. Graham is prominent in the woman suffrage movement and it was in part through her efforts that the State Federation of Labor a the recent meeing at Richmond endorsed woman suffrage. It is presumed that that body voiced the sentinent of union labor generally upon that question. President Lechler and other members of the federation hope to have a crowd that will fill the hall to its full capacity to grtet the noted lecturer.

PRESIDENT M'CREA COMING.

Will Pass Through Fort Wayne Saturday Morning.

President James McCrea, of the Pennsylvania, will make an inspection trip over the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago branch of the Pennsylvania system next Saturday. He will travel by special train, accompanied by some of the other general officers and the division officers over the respective territories of the latter. The inspection train will leave Chicago at 7 o'clock and reach Fort Wayne about 10:30 o'clock, stopping here only long enough to exchange engines.

SPENT THE NIGHT HERE.

President Delano and Wabash Directors on Inspection Trip.

President F. A. Delano, General Manager Henry Miller and some of the members of the board of directors of the Wabash were in Fort Wayne over night. They are making an inspection trip over the Wabash system and their special train was delayed several hours, making it necessary to stop over night here, instead of Danville, Ill., as previously arranged. The party got here at 7:15 last night, too late to inspect the track elevation work, and that part of the program was put off until this morning, when all arose bright and early for that purpose. The special train bearing the party left for the west at 7:15 o'clock this morning. With the higher officials were all of the division officials, including Supt. J. C. Sullivan, Master Mechanic G. W. Smith, Division Engineer W. S. Danes and Trainmaster C. E. Wells.

CHANGE LOCATION OF PLANT.

Bash Fertilizer Factory to Be Erected Near Rolling Mills.

The fertilizing plant of the Bash Fertilizer company which was destroyed by fire at Homestead, August 22, will not be rebuilt. Instead a new and more extensive plant will be erected on grounds along side the Lake Erie and Western tracks, near the Fort Wayne Rolling Mills, and the contract for the buildings has been let to the Pratt Engineering and Machine company, of Atlanta, Ga. Ground was broken yesterday morning for the foundation.

FARMER PREVENTED WRECK.

Flagged Wabash Continental Limited and Saved Lives.

A farmer who did not care to give his name flagged eastbound Wabash Continental Limited, No. 4, Sunday afternoon just in time to prevent a disaster at a trestle at Buck Creek, Ind., a short distance east of Lafayette. The farmer had been fishing and when crossing the trestle on his way home he discovered a broken and displaced rail and at the same time heard the fast train approaching. Running down the track, waving a bandana handkerchief, he succeeded in attracting the attention of the engineer, who brought the train to a sandstill just as the nose of the engine reached the broken rail. Repairs were made and the train preceded upon its run eastward. Henry Miller, vice president and general manager of the Wabash system, Superintendent J. C. Sullivan and General Trainmaster C. E. Wells were on No. 4. It was a narrow escape and passengers on the train were so overjoyed when they learned how the farmer had saved them from injury that they showered him with congratulations.

FIRST IN NEW SHOP.

Machinists P. J. Hess, John Nolan and Charles Herr, of the air brake department of the Pennsylvania shops, were the first to move into the new shop—the little frame building in the court west of the main machine shop building. Other parts of the air brake department will be moved as rapidly as possible and it is expected that all will be in the new quarters next Saturday.

WILL BE OPENED NOVEMBER 6.

Those Fort Wayne contractors who bid on the proposed passenger station of the Pennsylvania have been advised that their revised bids would be opened November 6 and the result immediately announced. The matter is entirely in the hands of Chief Engineer Robert Trimble, at Pittsburg, who will place the contract. It will be remembered that former bids were higher than the estimate placed upon the cost of the building and the specifications had to be revised, cutting out some of the most expensive ornamental features, but not changing the plan of architecture.

CARPENTER GIVEN SURPRISE.

Fred Kayser, of 2105 Gay street, a carpenter employed at the factory of Rhinesmith & Simonson, was the unexpected host of about twenty-five of his fellow shopmen Saturday night. Mr. Kayser was fifty-nine years old on that day and, though he allowed the anniversary to pass unnoticed, not so the "boys" at the shop. They dropped in upon him in a body about 8 o'clock Saturday evening, accompanied by Casso, the harp player, and had a most jolly time until midnight. Mrs. Kayser prepared and served a most delicious luncheon for the guests.

LOCOMOTIVE DERAILED.

As westbound Nickel Plate passenger train No. 3 was leaving the city at 4:40 yesterday afternoon, the engine was derailed at a point midway between Broadway and Van Buren street, bringing the train to a sudden stop. None of the cars were derailed, however, and nobody was injured, but the train was delayed a half-hour or more, while another engine was being made ready to take it on its way.

CAUGHT TEN POUND PICKEREL.

Engineer Joseph Studer, of the Nickel Plate, doesn't fish very often, but when he takes his tackle to the river or lake, he returns with a fish or two worth having. Monday Engineer Studer went to the St. Mary's river, near Swinney park, and was soon engaged in the effort to land one of the largest pickerel taken out of that stream in a number of years. He was successful. The fish weighed exactly ten pounds.

TO PUBLISH LABOR PAPER.

E. R. Russell, who received the official endorsement of the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor for a weekly labor union paper, announces that he will issue the first number of the Labor-News Scimitar on Friday, November 1. Mr. Russell says that he has 800 subscribers now and expects to run the number up to 1,000 by November 1.

FELL OFF ENGINE TENDER.

Injuries sustained Sunday when he fell off the tender of his engine at the water plug west of the Pennsylvania round house have put Fireman R. M. Barker out of commission for a few days. No bones were broken but he was generally shaken up by the fall.

Has Another Railway Project.

Joseph Ramsey, jr., who was at the head of the Wabash when the line from Fort Wayne to Detroit was constructed and put in operation and when the Wabash built into Pittsburg, the greatest freight producing center of the United States, is now pushing a railway project in Ohio which promises to develop into an important system. Concerning Mr. Ramsey and his late undertaking, the Pittsburg Dispatch says:

"Pittsburg friends received the pleasant news yesterday that Joseph Ramsey, jr., former president of the Wabash, has 'come back.' He is behind another railroad promotion plan in Ohio, and is ready to continue his fight just as vigorously as he did against ancient enemies when he was head of the Wabash system. Mr. Ramsey is now president of the Lorain, Ashland and Southern Railroad company, a line extending from Lorain to Wellington, stopping several miles short of Ashland.

JOSEPH RAMSEY, JR.

"Mr. Ramsey is not without his plans, however. From Ashland to Custaloga, connecting there with the Pennsylvania lines, is a line built by Ashland manufacturers to escape what they believed to be the exactions and the unfavorable service of the Erie. Its head is N. P. Ramsey, a brother of the former Wabash president. By connecting up Wellington and Ashland the Ramseys would have a line through from Lorain to Custaloga, opening up new territory to the Pennsylvania.

"The company, of which Ramsey is the head, now has $250,000 of outstanding stock, and Mr. Ramsey asks the Ohio Public Service company for permission to issue $1,750,000 more. He also asks authority for the issuance of $1,500,000 of first mortgage five per cent. fifty-year bonds, selling price not mentioned, and for additional authority to hold $500,000 in bonds in reserve for future contingency. Authority is furthermore asked for the issuance of $1,200,000 second mortgage bonds.

"Mr. Ramsey gives the total assets of the company as $4,700,000, a large part of the value being in real estate and rights of way, held by the West Virginia and Ohio Construction company, under contract."

KLINGMAN IS PROMOTED.

Lawrence Klingman received promotion yesterday when he was transferred from the wiring to the motor inspecting department at the Fort Wayne Electric works. Ed L. Haffner is the head of that department and is assisted in the work by Charles Braun. The increasing business of the company and the consequent increased demand upon this department made another inspector necessary. An office is being fitted up for Mr. Haffner and his assistants. It will be located in a comfortable room in the northeast corner of the first floor of the new building on Broadway.

GUEST OF PENNSY OFFICIALS.

Supt. Harry N. Williams, of the Nickel Plate, was the guest of the Pennsylvania division officials Monday on an inspection trip over the line between Fort Wayne and Chicago. He returned Monday night over his own line.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Nickel Plate Engineer E. J. Barry is off duty on account of the illness of his mother.

Peter Johann, file clerk at the Pennsylvania round house office, is sick and off duty.

Pennsylvania Engineer John L. Gebert and J. M. Roush are off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Engineer Harry Vicery has gone to Buffalo, N. Y., to stay eight or ten days.

Assistant Foreman Byron Thomas, who was sick, is again on duty in the Pennsylvania shops.

Fireman J. A. Swartz and George Swartz are in Cleveland on business connected with the railroad.

Machinist Karl Bablinger is absent from work in the Pennsylvania round house on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Fireman L. Koers took his mother to Chicago this morning for a visit with relatives and friends.

Machinist E. P. Galland, who had an eye injured a few days ago, has recovered and this morning resumed work.

Conductor Denny Hayes resumed work in the Wabash yards this morning. He was visiting in Buffalo a few days.

Boilermaker Roy Frost, who fell and sprained his side a week ago, has recovered and resumed work in the Pennsylvania shops.

Nickel Plate Fireman C. E. Geary severely wrenched his back Sunday when he slipped and fell and he has been unable to work since.

G. W. Grodrian, the Pennsylvania fireman who was severely burned two months ago, has recovered and this morning reported for duty on the road.

Engineer J. A. Swartz, of the Nickel Plate, who was sick much of the time the past year, has now fully regained his health and is able to work steadily.

Edwin L. Roth and Zachariah Dongawara, machinists' helpers, and Coitas Dimitrin, laborer, took employment in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

Miss Marie Stephens, the daughter of Machinist John M. Stephens, of the Pennsylvania shops, will go to Atwood Friday evening to spend a few days with relatives.

Boilermaker D. M. McLeish, of the Bass shops, had an eye injured yesterday by a sliver of steel. Fortunately the cut was not deep enough to impair the sight of the optic.

Grover C. Becker, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania relief ticket receiver, is "helping out" inthe local ticket receiver's office during the absence of George W. Sellers, who is on a wedding trip.

Engineer and Mrs. David Raidy have returned from Indianapolis. They were called their ten days ago by news of the serious illness of their son-in-law, Joseph Schlotter, who is slightly improved, though still very ill.

Engineer Bert Baughman is sick; Engineers Cy Allen and John Sanburn are looking after private matters and Engineer Chester Fisher is visiting in Leipsic. All are employed on the Nickel Plate.

Machinist William Jordon, who recently returned with his bride from a wedding trip, resumed his duties in the Bass shops this morning. The couple will not engage in housekeeping until next spring.

The Nickel Plate continues to add a man now and then to its force of trainmen. Yesterday S. J. Ellis and Ed Walsh, both experienced railway trainmen, took employment as brakemen with the company.

William J. Feary, foreman of boiler work at the Pennsylvania round house, is enjoying a vacation with friends in the mountains in Pennsylvania. He expects to remain there two weeks and to do some bear hunting.

Machinist Joseph Deck, of the Pennsylvania shops, will be married Tuesday, November 5, to Miss Henrietta Sorg, of Sheldon, Ind. The young couple will go to housekeeping immediately after the wedding.

E. J. Bryant, of Cleveland, O., who succeeded Ed Hayden as traveling passenger agent in this territory for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul company, was in the city today calling upon local agents and prospective travelers.

Dennis O'Conner, one of the old men in the Pennsylvania machine shop in point of service, will be off duty a few days as the result of a fall when he stumbled over a pile of metal in the air brake room. He had one of his ribs fractured.

Mr. Reynolds, a boiler inspector for the Hartford Insurance company, is in the city in that capacity. He inspected the boilers at the Fort Wayne Electric works yesterday and congratulated the management upon the excellent condition of the plant.

Brakeman E. F. McCarthy reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday after a two weeks' visit at Garrett, where Mrs. McCarthy's relatives reside. She was with him. Brakeman Harry Holsworth also reported for work yesterday after a fifteen days' lay off.

F. G. Olds, E. F. W. Hambrock, Jacob Waldschmidt, C. E. Scheid, R. H. Masterson and A. J. Offerle, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty. Charles W. Kronmiller, assistant foreman of the planing mills, is off duty on account of the illness of his wife.

The General Electric Lamp club, consisting of employes of the General Electric works, is planning for a large dance to be given at Minuet hall on Wednesday evening, November 6. A large number of tickets have already been issued and a good attendance is being anticipated.

Engineers C. E. and N. O. Grubb, F. H. Pierce and E. E. Lopeman have resumed work after spending last week attending the street fair in Bellevue. Engineer George W. Thompson, who had been spending ten days with relatives at his old home in Ohio, also reported for work yesterday. They are Nickel Plate employes.

The men at the Pennsylvania depot are "kicking" themselves for allowing George W. Sellers, the chief clerk in the ticket receiver's office, to be married and get out of the city with his bride before they knew it or had opportunity to give him a fitting "send-off." However, the ywill even matters with Mr. Sellers upon his return. The bride was Miss Edith Ream. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers are now in Colorado and will not return until some time next week.

The German Realty company, of which Amos E. Houk was treasurer, has vacated its offices in the Pixley Long block and the books and documents have been transferred to the office of Mr. Ellenwood, who will have charge of the company's collections until a reorganization is effected in the spring.

ALWAYS CONQUERS RHEUMATISM

Thousands of persons have been rescued from the tortures of Rheumatism and restored to perfect health by the use of S. S. S. So uniform are the good results from its use that we do not hesitate to say S. S. S. always conquers Rheumatism if given a fair trial. You can never cure this deep-seated disease with external treatment, such as liniments, plasters, blisters, etc. These may furnish temporary relief but they do not reach the blood where the real cause is located. Rheumatism is rooted and grounded in the blood and must be driven from its stronghold there before permanent relief can be had. S. S. S. conquers Rheumatism by driving from the circulation the excess accumulation of uric acid which is responsible for the disease. S. S. S. strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour fluid, causing pain and agony throughout the system, it becomes a nourishing stream furnishing health to every portion of the body and relieving every symptom of Rheumatism. If you do not conquer Rheumatism it will conquer you. S. S. S. is the one remedy you can depend upon for good effects. Book on Rheumatism free from THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—War news induced buying of wheat today and pushed the market higher. December started at 93c to 93¼c, touched 92⅞c@93c and then rose to 93¼@93⅜c.

The close was firm, with December 1c net higher at 93⅜@94c.

Lightness of demand prevented corn from joining much in the wheat bulge. December opened at 53¼@53⅜ and rallied to 53½c.

The close was firm, ¼c net higher at 53⅜c.

Oats became firm in the absence of selling pressure. December opened at 32¼@32⅜c to ⅜c and ranged between 32¼c and 32½c.

Shorts covering brought about an upturn in provisions. First transactions with January were $19.00@19.12½ for pork, $10.77½ to $10.80 for lard and $10.12½ to $10.15 for ribs.

TWENTY-MINUTE SESSION.

Councilmen Hustled Through Business Last Night and Adjourned.

Members of the city council spent twenty minutes last night receiving the controller's financial report of the city and electric lights receipts and expenditures, approving the mayor's report of signed ordinances, appropriating $700 for the purchase of a lot at Reed and Fisher streets to build a fire station, appropriating $350 for the police station account and referring an ordinance giving the chief of police the right to inspect buildings and correct conditions that are dangerous.
At the close Member Herman Strodel invited the council to meet him next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to inspect the site of the proposed change in the course of St. Mary's river in preparation for the Barthold street bridge.

CAN'T FIND 'EM AT TERRE HAUTE

Unable to Locate Many Men Whose Names Are on Registration Books.

OVER 300 INDICTED

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 23.—The grand jury, which has been investigating alleged illegal registration yesterday returned indictments against more than three hundred names registered as voters in precinct C, Sugar Creek township. The only name made public was that of Andrew C. Berkeley, who served as inspector of the precinct. Berkeley is charged with placing registration certificates of 322 names on the books without the names appearing. Warrants were ordered against all men named in the indictment. It is said the 322 names alleged to have been illegally placed on filed by Berkeley are included.

Sheriff Walsh has begun service on the warrants issued in the forty indictments returned Monday. So far no arrests have been made. The sheriff reported that he had been unable to find the men, although their names and addresses were registered as voters in precinct D, of the First ward.

Berkeley is also facing trial on a charge of assaulting James C. Leasure, a voter, who sought to register. Subpoenas for 365 witnesses in this case were returned yesterday with the report that 362 cannot be found. The names are registered as voters in the precinct.

draft for $25,000. Another letter to George W. Perkins inclosed a check for $30,000, saying that Senator Beveridge did not want to be elected by the use of money," said the witness.

Hayes said he believed the Pinchot contribution, which he thought was $3,000, was returned personally by Beveridge to Pinchot, campaigning in Indiana. Hayes knew nothing of the funds collected and used by the Indiana state committee in the campaign. He said he signed and witnessed a duplicate of the letter returning the Perkins money.

"That letter was also signed by Mr. Whitcomb, Thomas R. Shipp and L. G. Rothschild," he testified.

Beveridge Was Agitated.

Leopold G. Rothschild, surveyor of customs at Indianapolis, a member of the executive committee of the Indiana republican state committee in the 1904 campaign, said he believed the state committee received $75,000 from the national committee. He corroborated the testimony of Mr. Whitcomb and Mr. Hayes.

The witness said that "Mr. Beveridge appeared agitated" when he showed him the checks and drafts early in October.

"He said he thought he'd send the money right back," Rothschild continued. "I thought it would be a bad thing to send it back because it might injure the friendship of the men who sent it. So he determined to hold it until after the election. I remember he put the drafts and checks in an envelope and put it in his vault to be returned after election.

Retells Letter Story.

Mr. Rothschild retold the story of the letters returning the money as outlined by Hayes and Whitcomb.

The committee adjourned until tomorrow after a letter from Judge R. S. Lovett, of the Harriman railroads, had been placed in the record, relating to the dismissal of the government land suits against the Harriman lines. The letter included court records to corroborate Judge Lovett's testimony that the suits were dismissed in 1905, about ten years before the date of the collection of the Harriman $240,000 fund. Joseph H. McCall, a former government attorney had testified they were dismissed in 1905. Judge Lovett contended McCall had confused separate suits.

The annual inspection of S. W. Stirk circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will be held Friday evening, and refreshments will be served.

ALLEGES CRUEL TREATMENT.

Columbus Society Leader Asks Divorce, Naming Co-respondent.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Flora C. Schwartzkopf filed in the Bartholomew circuit court here a tsuit for divorce from Albert N. Schwartzkopfd. An effort was made to keep the complaint from the public, but it was learned that cruel and inhuman treatment were alleged and that an Indianapolis woman was named as co-respondent. The couple are wealthy social leaders here and the wife is a daughter of Francis T. Crump, a local millionaire.

WAYNE HAS TWO SHOOTINGS.

Woman Figures in One—All Parties Are Colored.

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 23.—William Thompson was shot, but probably not fatally, by Mrs. Anna Moore yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Moore gave herself up, saying she shot because Thompson had insulted her daughter. At Fountain City, Wayne county, Milo Burden attempted to shoot Walter Bragg, but was overpowered by Bragg, who brought him to the Richmond jail. The parties involved in both shootings are colored.

G. L. FRAME HAS OPERATION.

Leg Amputated After Gangrene Attacked Old Wound.

G. L. Frame, a representative of the Diebold Safe company and well known in Fort Wayne, is a patient at the Grant county hospital at Marion, where he submitted to the amputation of one of his limbs. Mr. Frame sustained numerous injuries in an accident last August, and later suffered a severe attack of gangrene.

Mr. Frame is well and favorably known in Fort Wayne and news of his condition comes as a shock to his many friends, both in local business and social circles.

THE CITY COURT CASES.

Harry Weaver, for Petit Larceny, is the Only One Fined.

Judge Mungovan was quite lenient to the offenders in the city court this morning and all but one of the offenders were let go with reprimands. Those charged with drunkenness were John Malony, Eugene Webb, Fred Williams and Pat Welch. Joe Paff and Fred Sommers, up for loitering, were allowed to get out of town.

Harry Weaver was found guilty of stealing a machinists' tool from a fellow workman and was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to thirty days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended during good behavior.

Laurence Kress, aged 8, charged with loitering, was bound over to the juvenile court.

WILL BUY NEW TRUCK.

Board of Public Safety Will Abolish a Team at No. 7 Engine House.

Plans were making last night at the meeting of the board of public safety to replace the equipment at the West Main street fire station with an auto truck. This will save $3,000 annually in feed for horses and the services of two men who can be transferred. George Fox, of the Fort Wayne Auto Truck company, was present and will be one of the bidders. The board also took up the project of placing red globes on street lamps at the corners where fire alarm boxes are located.

Officers and committees of the Fort Wayne Anti-Tuberculosis society have decided to sell Christmas stamps independently this winter and use the proceeds in establishing a tent colony in this vicinity. An effort had been made by state officials to induce the local society to co-operate this season with the National Red Cross association.

GENERAL FORECAST.

Washington, Oct. 23.—For Indiana: Fair tonight, with frost; Thursday fair and warmer.
For Ohio: Fair, colder tonight, with heavy frost; Thursday fair and slightly warmer.
For Lower Michigan: Fair tonight; Thursday fair, warmer.

SUMMARY OF WEATHER CONDITIONS

The storm has moved eastward and is central over New York this morning. Since yesterday morning it has given general rains from Michigan and Indiana eastward to the Atlantic coast, some heavy rainfalls being reported from New York. Erie reports a rainfall of 2.24 inches and Buffalo 2.36 inches. The storm has been followed by fair and much colder weather throughout the Mississippi valley, and frosts are reported as far south this morning as Tennessee and northern Louisiana. Under the influence of an extensive low pressure area which is central north of Montana this morning, temperatures are moderating rapidly throughout the northwest.
In this section fair weather will continue tonight and Thursday. It will be cooler tonight and warmer again on Thursday.

Start the Day Warm With a PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

SLEEPING with the windows open is a "first aid" to health and beauty. But it makes getting up in the morning a chilly ordeal.

With a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater you dress in comfort on the coldest day.

A touch of a match, and the Perfection is aglow in a minute. Later, you can carry it to any other room, and breakfast, read or sew in comfort.

In fact, a Perfection Heater is just as good as a fire, and much cleaner and more convenient.

It is a handsome heater, too. Ask your dealer to show you a Perfection, or write for descriptive catalogues.

CALLS LIGHTING COST TOO HIGH

South Bend is Talking of Municipal Electric Plant.

OTHER INDIANA NEWS

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 23.—What is said to be the first step toward bringing about the erection of a municipal lighting plant for South Bend, was taken today when the board of public works called for bids from electric companies to furnish lights for the city. The present contract with the Indiana-Michigan company expires in 1915. This company collects $50,000 annually for furnishing light to South Bend, and the price is deemed excessive, as there is really no competition. It is figured that the city will be unable to get a lower figure and will erect its own plant.

COULD NOT STOP BICYCLE.

Wheelman is Arrested After Policeman Chases Him in Automobile.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 23.—In this day of automobiles and aeroplanes, a man who could not stop a bicycle which he is riding, is something of a wonder. John Nozya said he could not stop his wheel and the statement provoked a general laugh in the city court. Patrolman Bailey said he wanted the defendant for violating the traffic ordinance and shouted at him. The wheelman peddled away. The policeman threw his club at him and it stuck in the frame of the bicycle. Bailey followed Nozya in an automobile, much to the amusement of a crowd. Nozya had the start so the chase lasted for almost a half mile. "I was just learning to ride and couldn't stop," said Nozya, and the court fined him $15 for misrepresentation and for violating the ordinance.

SINGER OBTAINS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Louise Bodemann Free of Man Who Posed as English Nobleman.

Winchester, Ind., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Jessie Louise Carver Bodemann Monday afternoon obtained a divorce from Johannes Bodemann, whom she charged with abandonment and cruel and inhuman treatment. The evidence showed Bodemann deserted her after spending all her money. Bodemann posed as a nobleman of England. Mrs. Bodemann is known throughout the state as a singer, and is soloist in a church in New York city. She met Bodemann while abroad.

CHILDREN DRINK WHISKY.

One is Unconscious and Other Revives, But Condition is Serious.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 23.—Two Hungarian children are near death here from the effects of drinking a quart of their father's whisky. Gizella Nemeth, aged seven, drank more than a half quart and has not regained consciousness. Thomas Motnar, aged three, has been revived, but he is still in a serious condition. The mother of the children left them playing together while she went shopping and the children discovered the liquor.

MANY PRAIRIE CHICKENS HERE

THEY ARE PROTECTED

Indianapolis, Oct. 23.—George W. Miles, commissioner of fisheries and game, has announced, following a series of investigations his deputies have been making, that a conservative estimate of the number of prairie chickens now in Indiana is 100,000. The counties about the Kankakee basin hold the majority of the game birds. In 1909 the legislature passed a bill prohibiting the shooting of prairie chickens at any time and the state department immediately took up the work of rebuilding the shattered numbers of the birds throughout the state. The law extends for six years and in 1914, Mr. Miles said, it is probable the legislature will be asked to open a very short season for the chicken hunters, if any at all.

The farmers in the northern counties have been co-operating with the state departments in its attempts to prevent the extermination of the birds, Mr. Miles said. This year deputies on motorcycles have patrolled the counties the birds haunt and have run down every hunter found illegally shooting the game.

Few persons in the state realize that such a "harvest" of the birds has been nurtured in the northern counties, the state official said. The haunts of the chickens now extend as far east as one hundred miles from the west line of the state's boundary. There are approximately five hundred birds in Kosciusko county, one thousand in Fulton county and between twelve thousand and fifteen thousand in White county, Mr. Miles said.

Mr. Miles said the plans of the state department contemplate allowing a very short open season on the birds at the expiration of the "closed" law. A small bag limit and the shutting out of the birds from markets of the state will aid in keeping them here in large numbers, Mr. Miles said. Because the same principles have been followed with regard to the quail in Indiana, those birds are slowly increasing in numbers, the commissioner said.

JOHN COFFINBERRY DEAD.

Garrett Business Man Passes Away in California.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 23.—Word was received in this city at 10 o'clock Tuesday night that John Coffinberry, a prominent business man of this city, had died at 11:45 a. m. Tuesday morning at the home of his brother, Will Coffinberry, at South San Francisco, where he had gone about two months ago in hope that the climatic changes would benefit his health. His death came as a great shock to the people of this city for word from there has been that he was improving.

Mr. Coffinberry is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Coffinberry, of this city and was one of the most highly respected men in our city. Besides his mother he leaves a wife, a little daughter five years old, and one brother. He was 30 years of age.

The message which was sent to Carl Heinzerling, stated that they would leave San Francisco Wednesday morning on the Overland Limited for this city.

Mr. Coffinberry and Mr. Heinzerling were partners in the hardware business and owned one of the finest stores in this section of the country. Mr. Coffinberry developed tubercular trouble several months ago and when his condition did not improve or respond to medical treatment he decided on a change of climate.
